

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Inasmuch as it appears that a proper number of Units have applied for Charters in the Department of Arkansas, and that such applications have been approved in due form.

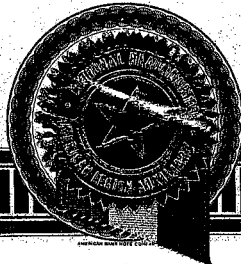

Now therefore, pursuant to the powers conferred by the Constitution of the American Legion Auxiliary, the National Executive Committee hereby creates the Department of Arkansas composed of all Units within the area of the Department of Arkansas. By the granting of this Charter to said Department, authority is given to establish and maintain the same, and this instrument, unless revoked or suspended, shall be conclusive evidence of the lawful existence thereof.

By the acceptance of this Charter the said Department acknowledges irrevocable jurisdiction and declares itself to be in all things subject to the Constitution of the American Legion Auxiliary and the rules, regulations, orders and laws promulgated in pursuance thereof, and further the said Department pledges itself, through its Units and the members thereof, to uphold, protect and defend the Constitution of The United States and the principles of true Americanism, for the common welfare of the living and in solemn commemoration of those who died that liberty might not perish from the Earth.

In Witness Whereof, this Charter is given by the National Executive Committee of the American Legion Auxiliary, under the hand and seal of the National President, duly attested by the National Secretary, at Headquarters in Indianapolis, Indiana, this 9th day of October, 1922.

Attest:

Pauline C. Currais
National Secretary

Edith Inis Hobart
National President
