2017-2022 American Legion Auxiliary Programs Action Plan

American Legion Auxiliary Foundation

Established in 2007, the American Legion Auxiliary Foundation (ALAF) is a nonprofit 501(c)3 subsidiary organization of the American Legion Auxiliary. It is comprised of elected, designated, and appointed directors, and founded to assist in carrying out the educational, charitable, and other exempt purposes of the American Legion Auxiliary by raising funds for, assisting in conduct of, and providing support to the Auxiliary's programs.

Why support the American Legion Auxiliary Foundation?

The ALA Foundation positively impacts the lives of our veterans, military, and their families by funding programs of the American Legion Auxiliary today and for future generations.

The ALA Foundation supports our veterans, military, and their families through three funds:

- Mission Endowment Fund: The ALA Foundation provides a way to secure our legacy and heritage of Service Not Self, ultimately enhancing the quality of life for future generations of veterans, military, and their families. As an endowed fund, the monies are permanently restricted so that future generations may benefit from Auxiliary programs that support all of our veterans and promote education, good citizenship, and outreach to veterans facing tough challenges. Your donation today will help ensure we're here to help veterans tomorrow.
- Veteran Projects Fund: Make a direct impact on veterans, military, and their families in your community through the Veteran Projects Fund. Each unit, district/county, and department is eligible to apply for a grant to support new, one-time needs of their local veterans. Donations collected for this fund directly benefit our nation's heroes in need.
- Veterans Creative Arts Festival (local and national): The arts can be powerful therapy, and the American Legion Auxiliary recognizes that. Both locally and nationally, the Auxiliary co-presents amazing events that assist veterans in healing from both their physical and psychological wounds through the creative arts. Each year, the artistic achievements of veterans being treated at U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs facilities across the country are displayed for all to see. With your gift, the show can go on.

How to support the ALA Foundation

- Checks can be made payable to ALA Foundation and mailed to:
American Legion Auxiliary National Headquarters
Attention: Development Division
8945 N Meridian St.
Indianapolis, IN 46260

Note: Make sure to designate which fund you wish to have your donation credited to if you have a preference.

- Online Contributions can be made at www.ALAFoundation.org/donate
- Planned Giving is the process of thoughtfully including a charitable gift in your estate plans. It is a method of establishing your legacy of support for the organization you love while providing for your current financial needs. You can help ensure that the American Legion Auxiliary has a lasting impact for the generations that follow by providing for the continuation of our many programs and services that enhance the lives of those we serve. A brochure on Planned Giving can be downloaded at www.ALAFoundation.org.
- Matching Gifts could double your donation as many companies and foundations offer matching gift programs — doubling the funds donated by employees, members, or trustees. Your $25 donation to the American Legion Auxiliary Foundation could become a $50 contribution. Or $50, matched by your company, would turn into $100. So, as you donate to help our veterans, military, and their families, find out if a matching gift program is available where you work.
- Tributes and Memorials in honor or memory of a loved one is a lasting way to celebrate how much a person's life means to the donor. Donating in lieu of flowers celebrates a loved one's life by supporting the outreach of the American Legion Auxiliary's mission and patriotic values. When you make a memorial donation to the ALA Foundation, the person or family you are honoring will receive an acknowledgment from National Headquarters informing them of your gift without disclosing the amount.

How to receive grant funding from the ALA Foundation

The American Legion Auxiliary Foundation provides financial assistance to ALA entities (unit, department, district/counties) from three different grants:

- Veteran Projects Fund Grants: Specific, emergent needs that support the ALA mission may qualify for this type of grant.

- Sub Grants: If your ALA entity has funding that requires the recipient to be a 501(c)3, this grant can help.
- Veterans Creative Arts Festival Grants: Veterans Creative Arts Festival mini grants can aid in the therapeutic wellbeing of veterans by introducing them to art therapy.

UNIT FUNDRAISING IDEAS

The following ideas are examples from other nonprofit organizations.

Some tips on selecting and planning a fundraiser:

- Take into account who might be potential participants and volunteers – will you have enough of both?
- Set a date that does not conflict with other local events and far enough ahead to be able to plan and execute well.
- What is the fundraising event raising money for? Determine this so that it appeals to potential participants. Since it will be an ALA event, the focus should be on one of our programs such as: veterans and their families, ALA Girls State, ALA Foundation... choose something non-members can relate to.
- Marketing of the event needs to be well planned through local media (radio, TV, newspapers) and public announcements like flyers, newsletters, and websites.
- During the event, make sure participants can identify ALA volunteers by their clothing attire and signage – be bold. Don't forget to have ALA brochures available for distribution.
- Check local permit/license requirements for your events.

Adult Spelling Bee: Money can be raised through local businesses and individuals sponsoring an adult 21 years of age or older to be a contestant in the adult spelling bee held at a local establishment. The entry fee was $50 and the sponsor of the entry was advertised at the event on a name board and also thanked in a letter to the editor of the local newspaper. Other area sponsors were participants in the giving of prizes for both the winning sponsor and winning speller. We used words found on spelling word websites and also terminology from all areas of expertise represented by the sponsors that gained entry into the competition. Between the 40 spelling teams, silent auction, raffle, private donations and refreshment sales, the spelling bee raised approximately $15,000.

Animal Pictures: Kids of all ages love to have their photos taken with animals, and parents have a hard time resisting because they are so very cute. You can borrow animals from a local pet shop or animal shelter. Get a local photographer to donate professional photo services, and set up at a mall or other event. Be sure to keep a true animal lover around to handle anything that gets unruly. The usual agreement would be that the photographer has his/her film costs reimbursed, and of course his/her name is on the photos as free advertising and he/she would be the source of reprints. The photographer will usually have printed forms for completion. You should arrange for your members to handle the registration and collection to keep costs down. Payments should be collected in advance. Sample photos with the available animals at their cutest could help spur fundraising sales.

Alternatively, you could use a Polaroid or digital camera set up on a tripod with lighting and distance worked out ahead of time. If using a digital camera, have a separate pickup booth set up with a computer and printer to produce the prints. Don't forget to arrange for folders or other packaging for your photos. If using a digital camera, you could even include a contact number for reprints within a certain time limit. In that case, make sure to store the original files safely for the allotted time limit. Possible sources of animal subjects could be your local humane society or shelter as well as members of your group. (It could result in some adoptions for the society/shelter.) You may want to arrange for several animals (parrots or toucans make a great choice if docile) to attract more attention and assure the animals don't get too flustered, particularly if you extend your hours. This could be a great compliment to an outdoor fair. Hay bales make a great backdrop and temporary corral as well as help with any 'accidents.' Be sure to plan for food, water and shade for the animals, and shovels to clean up after them. A garbage can with a tight cover can help keep the odor down.

Basket Raffle: Basket contents can be tailored to whatever holiday or event you choose. Have each member donate a food item to fill the basket. Example: If you are doing a Thanksgiving Basket someone can donate a can of corn, a packet of gravy mix, a bag of marshmallows, cider mix, etc. Try and have the turkey donated by your local grocer. Make flyers, announcements in your newsletter, memos, sell to people at work, school, church, neighbors, etc. Sell tickets for a dollar each, which is an easy sell to most people. Make sure to have the name and phone number on your tickets so you know whom to call when the winner is announced. Set a date to announce the winner and the delivery date. Put the name of your winner in your newsletter and on the website if you have one.

Benefit Singing: Hold a benefit singing fundraising event at a church or community center. Get local singers to volunteer. You can ask for a "love offering" or set an admission price. You might want to have a snack booth with beverages and treats. Around the holidays or Veterans Day these could be great themed events.

Box City: Box City is a fundraiser where participants raised pledges to become a citizen of Box City and then sleep in a box overnight to raise money and awareness for homelessness in their own county. Funds raised stay in the county to help homeless families and also those that are at risk for becoming homeless.

Box City can be more than a fundraiser. There can be food, games and entertainment and an outdoor movie. Participants love building and decorating their own cardboard homes. Boxes can be available by calling ahead to local retailers who can be requested to hold large appliance boxes for the event.

Cake Walk: Unit members donate cakes. You put numbers around tables (depending on the number of cakes and participants). You tape the top of the number close to edge of the table and far apart enough for people to stand by their numbers or on the floor. You charge a fee per number. Participants stand by their numbers. Second copies of the numbers that are on the tables are in a bag. Once the numbers on the tables have all been sold then you draw the number and the person who bought that number is the person who wins a cake. Also have numbers put on each cake and a separate bag with these numbers in as well. Then you also draw a cake number. That is the cake they win. The number of cakes you have is the number of rounds you have. People line up to buy their numbers again after each cake is won.

Cemetery Walk: If you have a local cemetery that has some interesting residents and stories you can stage a cemetery walk and offer a soup-n-salad with bread supper, followed by a tour of the local cemetery with a few short and dramatic (living-history type) “vignettes” based upon events in the lives of the more historically significant residents and then an after-tour dessert and coffee held in the cemetery administrative building or other convenient location.

Cheap Little Tarts: The name is the draw at this event with multiple vendors. Purchase small tart shells (not the crumb crust type) and fill with various puddings and pie fillings made up from grocery store mixes. The chocolate is most popular and the cherry filling the least. Set your price ($1 is good) and add a lemonade or iced tea and picnic tables.

Decorative Bowling Pins: Ever wonder what bowling alleys do with the old worn bowling pins? They usually sell them or give them away. Crafters have figured out a variety of ways to decorate bowling pins and repurpose them for additional uses such as for table legs. Bowling alleys, charities, schools, and other organizations have bowling pin decoration contest fundraisers. Contestants are given the bowling pin to decorate and must follow the contest rules, such as decorating for a holiday or specific theme.

Helpful hints:

1. Sand old wooden bowling pins to diminish scratches and nicks from the wear and tear they received. Once they are smooth to the touch, apply a sealant.
2. Coat the bowling pin with a solid color of paint. White and tan are easy to work with and can be the background for a variety of items such as a person, penguin, ghost, or an angel.
3. Paint facial features and clothing on the pin. For example, paint a girl's face wearing a bikini or a comical man wearing a tight t-shirt with his belly button on display. Other ideas include painting city skylines, beaches, mountains, or animals onto the pin. For the non-artistic, you can use decoupage to attach pictures, decals, or stickers.
4. Sign and date the bottom of the bowling pin with a permanent marker. This may make your piece of art more valuable in the future or be a treasured keepsake for your descendants.
5. Apply a sealant over the project and allow to completely dry.
6. Cut pieces of material to create wings, eyebrows, beaks, or buttons and hot glue onto the pin.
7. Decorate the finished piece by adding a bow tie, pom-poms, hats, or tying a scarf or cape around the neck. Other options include adding real buttons, beads, fur, hair, or ribbon.

One Night Stand: Get talented artists to volunteer to create whimsical and beautiful night stands to donate for your fundraising event. Unusual pieces are the biggest draw. This can be held at a local boutique or wherever there might be lots of people. Participants bid on the chance to take home a one-of-a-kind night stand and support a good cause!

Donut Eating Contest

This is a fun event to partner with local law enforcement and hold at a local donut shop or at another venue that holds more people. Whoever eats six doughnuts the fastest wins the contest. A donation jar can be placed at the shop entrance with a unit volunteer handing out thank-you's and ALA brochures. T-shirts that advertised the event can also be sold.

Flag Subscription Service: This is a perfect fundraiser for the ALA! Your unit (and post) places flags on subscribers' yards for a specific number of days per year. Set your fees based on how many days the flag will be placed. The subscription cost for 1 year is $50-$100. The first year, expect to clear about half of the proceeds after paying for the flags and accessories. Renew subscribers annually. Subsequent years are mostly profit - allowing for the replacement of damaged or worn flags and receptacles. Advertise in local neighborhood papers, "sell" door-to-door, or set up a booth outside the local grocery or at sporting events. Confine your sales to a geographic area that's doable for your group. Split the coverage area and assign 2-4 person teams to each. That way you can get finished quicker and provide back-up coverage when a team member is out of town. Be sure to leave contact information with your subscribers so they can refer friends and neighbors who want to participate. This fundraising project can raise funds and make your participants and supporters feel good.

After subscriptions are sold, purchase the flags, aluminum conduit (for poles) and PVC pipe. That way you only buy what materials you actually need, although you may wish to allow some extra for last minute subscribers. The PVC is cut to about 14 inches and put into the ground as a receptacle for the flag pole, which is about 5 feet long. The PVC should be "planted" ahead of time. Be sure to keep a record of specifically where it is located on each property. Make sure the pole and PVC are a reasonably close fit to keep your flag upright. You can add a threaded end on top and cap the PVC when not in use to keep out dirt and rocks. But be sure the top is below lawn mower height to avoid damage. Use a hack saw to cut the poles and PVC to the desired lengths. Drill holes in the pipe to attach the flag with picture hanging wire or other sturdy wire for long wear.

Gas Station Attendant: Ask a local gas station to let you pump customers' gas and wash their windshields. You can either ask for an unspecified fundraising donation or a set amount (you will do better without a set amount). Since most stations are now self-serve, you will be offering the customers a welcome option. It's a win-win situation. It doesn't cost the station a cent and their customers get premium service. You have no upfront cost. The gas stations already have the windshield cleaner, squeegees, and paper towels. You just provide warm bodies and elbow grease.

Gift-Wrapping Service: Get in touch with a store or mall in your area and ask about setting up a gift-wrapping fundraising booth for their customers for Valentine's Day, Mother's Day, Father's Day, and/or Christmas. Just like regular gift-wrapping stations, you can charge different amounts for different levels of wrapping. You will need to invest in boxes, tape, wrapping paper, and bows. You can either accept donations or charge a fee per gift (depending on size, etc.). Usually the store will let you make announcements advertising your booth over their intercom while you are there gift-wrapping. Make sure you have enough people on hand to staff the booth during times advertised.

Remember that your "Wrap Staff" are representing the American Legion Auxiliary and the cooperating merchant and should act and dress appropriately. Do not waste gift-wrap material by creating "works of art" during down time. Even if you are using scraps, it gives the appearance that you are wasting supplies. Do not tape directly on the box you are wrapping. Some boxes contain collector's items that lose their value if you damage the outside packaging. Be safe, and don't use tape on the box.

Grocery Bagger: A few days per year volunteers could work with a local grocery store to bag and carry groceries for their customers, for tips. Have a coffee can sitting at the end of the checkout and give the volunteers some basic bagging lessons beforehand...no bread on the bottom, eggs on top, etc. It's a great time and the donations are pretty generous. Hand out a flyer to shoppers at the door when they walk in explaining your organization is there to bag and carry groceries free of charge, and if they choose to make a donation, please feel free to drop money in the decorated coffee cans provided at each register.

House Number: For this fundraising idea, paint street numbers on curbs in front of houses. Using a cardboard cutout, paint a dark rectangular background on the curb. After it dries, paint the house number in reflective paint.

Before you start, contact the Licensing and Permit section of your local municipality to see if a permit is required. Ask the local police and/or fire departments if they have any special advice/guidelines regarding the project. Pick a neighborhood with good curbs and canvas the neighborhood one or more weeks ahead, taking orders and collecting payment. Advertise your services by going door-to-door and talking to homeowners. Leave printed flyers on doors of homeowners who are not home.

Specify an initial and rain date when the work will be done. You may wish to give a ten-day period (two weekends) to allow for possible delays. You will need several sets of stencils, masking tape, and black background and reflective spray paint. Work in teams of three – one to sweep the curb, one to paint the background and one to paint the house number. Since you will need to let the background paint dry before applying the house number, you may be able to get by with teams of two, depending on the size of the neighborhood. Have additional order-takers available on “paint day” for the homes you missed previously. Your worker's activity will create additional sales.

“It’s A Girl Thing!”: Sell raffle tickets where the winner will receive a ‘Pamper Me’ packet for a day of relaxation and pampering, with all items being donated by local merchants. Tickets are sold for $1 each, all of which is profit and with minimal effort! The packet included a body massage, haircut and style, manicure, store gift certificate, dinner for two, and movie passes. Be creative and tailor your fundraising packet to fit your organization and supporters! Prepare a certificate or letter for the winner. Make sure you publicize the donations from the local merchants AND be sure to send them a personal thank you!

Coat Check: Between Thanksgiving and Christmas, work with your local mall management company for an area to have a coat check. Stores in the mall may donate the temporary use of racks to hang coats on and a secured area to leave packages, etc. Hand out a coat check ticket and shoppers can leave their coats, mittens, etc. while they shop. Set a minimum donation for the service. You can raise thousands of dollars with very little upfront cost. The only things to pay for are rolls of tickets that you can buy at any office supply store.

Miniature Golf Tournament: Reserve a miniature golf course for your fundraising event. Have participants ask people to sponsor them per hole they play. Then, run the tournament just like an Iron Man competition except you play on the miniature golf course. Play 100 holes in two hours or as many as you can do in two hours.

Potato Bar:

Bake potatoes and set up like a salad bar with all the fixings. Set price or ask for donations. You can also add salads and desserts donated by unit members. Add some fun by having someone dressed in a Mr. Potato Head costume walking around making sure everyone has everything they need. His parts are Velcro so the little kids can have a blast taking him apart and putting him back together.

Squeegee Day: What we do is ask people at a local drive thru to donate money to have their windshields washed. Have one person at the beginning of the drive thru asking the person if they would like their windshield washed as a donation to your cause. If they say yes, our volunteer places a pamphlet under their windshield wiper. Once they get to the front of the drive thru and they have a pamphlet under their wiper, your team of two washes their windshield and thanks them for their donation. Get the squeegees donated as well as the windshield washer fluid, and mix it 50/50 with water. There's very little setup (your pail and pamphlets) and it takes a very small number of people to pull it off.

ALA Girls Nation

American Legion Auxiliary units in all 50 states proudly host ALA Girls State, an amazing week of learning focused on responsible citizenship, leadership, and love for God and Country. Participants are assigned to mock cities and to either the “Federalist Party” or “Nationalist Party.” They are immersed in learning about the political process by electing officials for all levels of state government and actively running a mock government. Assistance from dedicated ALA volunteers ensures the program’s nonpartisan governmental, patriotic, and civic objectives are carried out through interactive learning. Though the week is filled with many learning opportunities, there is always time for fun and the formation of long-term friendships.

Two girls are selected from each ALA Girls State program to attend ALA Girls Nation. ALA Girls Nation “senators” meet for a week in Washington, D.C. where they run for political office, campaign, debate for the passage of legislation, and meet with U.S. Congressmen and Senators from their states. Capping off the week of ALA Girls Nation is a possible meeting with the President of the United States at the White House.

benefits they have gained as members. (I.e.: Have your members share at a program fair or in local city council meetings.)

3. Increase participation by highlighting college scholarship/funding possibilities for ALA Girls State program participants.

A. State participation scholarships

Ideas:

Member

- Make a donation to your local ALA Girls State program.
- Ask other organizations you volunteer with to donate to ALA Girls State.

Unit

- Solicit donations from other veteran, civic, or booster organizations to sponsor ALA Girls State participants.
- Network with schools (charter, private, home schools) that have no active units in their communities.
- Ask parents of past ALA Girls State citizens to contribute to the ALA Girls State program.
- Invite members to set up a memorial scholarship in memory of a loved one. Contact your department ALA Girls State chairman or director for information.

Department

- Ask your housing institution (ALA Girls State host location) to contribute a scholarship for ALA Girls State delegates.
- Have fundraisers to increase scholarship funds available to participants.
- Encourage ALA Girls State alumnae to consider providing scholarships to support the program.
- Apply for private grants to increase scholarship funds available to participants.

Note: Use caution when it comes to state funding.

B. College/Samsung scholarships

Every year, a participant of each ALA Girls State program, who is a direct descendant of a veteran, is eligible to apply for the Samsung scholarship at the state level. One ALA Girls State citizen from each state is named as a department finalist. Ten national winners and 10 national runners-up are then chosen from the pool of department finalists, each receiving a $10,000 and $5,000 scholarship, respectively. The remaining department finalists are guaranteed to receive a scholarship of $1,250.

Ideas:

Member

- Write an article for your media with Samsung scholarship information.
- Take a photo of past/present Samsung scholarship winners for the inclusion in department publications.

Unit

- Include a flyer promoting the Samsung scholarship in your ALA Girls State packets to the schools.
- Identify eligible Samsung scholarship recipients during the interview process.

Department

- Include a flyer promoting the Samsung scholarship in your bulk mailing to units.
- Acknowledge the recipient of a previous Samsung scholarship during your ALA Girls State program.
- Share a photo of the recipient along with a short article in department publications and the recipient's local newspaper.

4. Utilize the Internet, social networking sites, and written media to increase awareness and visibility of ALA Girls State.

Ideas:

Member

- Link personal social media accounts to ALA Girls State program accounts, as well as ALA Girls Nation sites. Since this program involves minors, please be sure to familiarize yourself with safety precautions found in the ALA's social media policy.
 - Twitter and Instagram handle is @ALAforVeterans.
 - Facebook page is "American Legion Auxiliary Girls Nation."
 - ALA Girls Nation blog at www.ALAGirlsNation.blogspot.com.

HOW TO CONDUCT A “KIDS OF DEPLOYED ARE HEROES 2” PROGRAM

Committee:

Children & Youth

Contact Information for Questions:

Children&Youth@ALAFORVeterans.org

Kids of Deployed are Heroes 2 (KDH2): honoring military children who may experience a separation from one or both parents, whether deploying to a war zone, having a short tour or extended TDY (temporary duty assignment).

1. Make preparations for a supply of “recognition buttons” for distribution. Visit the Children & Youth page of the Members Only section at www.ALAFORVeterans.org for more information. Buttons may be ordered through a commercial vendor or made locally with the following content:
 - I’m a Hero 2.
 - Proud Parent of a Military Child with a picture.
 - Proud Grandparent of a Military Child with a picture.
2. Call a planning meeting: include the Legion Family, especially Junior members. Consider the following ideas to recognize military kids:
 - Make or purchase and distribute ‘I’m a Hero 2’ buttons.
 - Make or purchase and distribute ‘Proud Parent/Grandparent of a Military Child’ with picture button.
 - Can’t afford buttons? Make or purchase and distribute stickers.
3. Decide the best location for recognition of military kids:
 - Coordinate with Family Readiness Groups for button distribution during family days.
 - Coordinate with Legion Family members for local community days/fairs etc.
 - Consider having an activity day/dinner for military families at your post home.
 - If your unit is in close vicinity to a military installation, contact Morale, Welfare, and Recreation (MWR) for a listing of activities in which you might have a concession or table.
 - Make buttons available for ALA Girls State and The American Legion Boys State programs and Junior members.
 - Consider suggestions from Junior members for school activities and locations.

No matter what you decide to do, plan a public relations campaign around your event. Consider having Auxiliary membership applications available. Community events provide the best opportunity to sign up new members.

HOW TO REACH OUT TO MILITARY CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Committee:

Children & Youth

Contact Information for Questions:

children&youth@ALAforVeterans.org

Some ideas for reaching out to military children and youth:

1. Sponsor a "You're My Hero" event, similar to the Youth Hero Award, but for military children.
 - Present them with certificates and medals.
 - Be creative.
 - Ask your Junior members to participate.
 - Use your public relations tools to inform the community. Refer to the Public Relations Toolkit at www.ALAforVeterans.org.
2. Host a movie and popcorn night for teens or a board game night.
3. Many military kids can't afford new prom dresses. Get the community involved in collecting and distributing gently used prom dresses.
 - Ask local radio stations and newspapers to donate time and space to help advertise your initiative.
 - Get local bridal shops involved.
 - Involve your high school counselors.
 - Your unit may also want to help with transportation expenses, flowers, etc.
4. Contact your local homeless shelter. Ask if there are any veterans there with children.
 - Since one in five homeless are veterans, there is a good chance they will be living in local shelters. Find out what your unit can do to help the children.
 - VA hospitals have homeless coordinators and/or directors of voluntary services. Meet with them to establish a method in which the coordinator/director will coordinate with your unit whenever a homeless veteran with children is identified. Offer to provide school supplies for the child, through the homeless coordinator or director of voluntary services.
5. Maybe the best thing you can do is get your Legion Family together and brainstorm ideas that might work in your community. Sometimes, school-aged children might be your best link to finding military children in your community. Be creative.

No matter what you decide to do, plan a public relations campaign around your event. Consider having Auxiliary membership applications available. Community events provide the best opportunity to sign up new members.

HOW TO ORGANIZE A VETERANS IN COMMUNITY SCHOOLS EVENT

Committee:

Education

Contact Information for Questions: education@ALAforVeterans.org

Background Information on Veterans in Community Schools:

Veterans in Community Schools is an activity endorsed by The American Legion that brings history to life by connecting military veterans with students in classrooms or at school assemblies in conjunction with history lessons about World War II, The Korean War, The Vietnam War or Operation Enduring Freedom/Operation Iraqi Freedom. The ever-decreasing numbers of healthy veterans from World War II points to the fleeting nature of the opportunity to pass on these important lessons.

Veterans are important pieces of American history. The American Legion Family believes accounts of their experiences while in uniform and as a result of their military service should be preserved and shared with others. Veterans have witnessed monumental events in history. They can help students learn from and appreciate the sacrifices individuals and their families have made.

In addition to sharing their experiences, veterans may also discuss a wide range of topics including how to help a family who has a deployed military service member, how to show support for the troops, proper respect for the flag, or why The American Legion Family was formed and what it stands for. Also, veterans' sharing of their military experience with an appreciative audience can help them heal psychological wounds from combat, deployment or family separation. Veterans who have spoken to students generally describe the experience as a rewarding and personally satisfying experience.

Steps for Organizing a Veterans in Community Schools Activity:

Participation in The American Legion's Veterans in Community Schools program is a suggested activity in the American Legion Auxiliary's Education Programs Action Plan. It can be reported for either the Education or VA&R program. Please only report each program one time.

Follow these steps to organize a Veterans in Community Schools event at a school(s) in your community.

1) Identify and Contact School(s)

- a. Contact a school or schools in your local community and offer to organize a Veterans in Community Schools event for a classroom, grade level, or student-body assembly. Reach out to the school principal first, either by an in-person visit, telephone or email. You may choose to select an elementary, middle or high school; you can alter your activities to accommodate a wide range of age groups. The most effective way is to have someone connected to the school (a parent or friend of a teacher,) make the approach.

2) Propose an Activity Plan

- a. The school official may refer you to a classroom teacher or to a department chair. If so, work with the teacher or chair to develop the activity into an educational program for students. Discuss with them how veterans can contribute to the students' understanding of military service and/or U.S. history. Provide additional resources (found below) for teachers, as they may want to introduce key concepts to students in their lesson plans in preparation for the activity.
- b. Work with the school to identify the most suitable time, venue, and format of the activity. You could host the event in a classroom, cafeteria, auditorium, or gymnasium. The size of the venue will depend on the number of veterans and the size of the audience.
- c. Propose to hold the Veterans in Community Schools activity on or around Veterans Day (November 11 each year) or Memorial Day, but do not limit yourself to those time periods if that time frame does not suit the school calendar.
- d. Depending on the average age of the audience, you may want to develop a set of guidelines for the event. In addition to hearing about veteran experiences, different age groups may be interested in other information as well. Elementary/middle school students may be interested in flag education and citizenship; high school students may be interested in the role of the military in today's society, a more in-depth exploration of the veteran's experience, the Veterans History Project of the Library of Congress, and volunteer service opportunities that are offered by the Legion Family.
- e. Offer to create handouts or supplemental materials about veterans for students to take home for themselves and their family members. Note that the school official will likely need to review and approve the materials being proposed for distribution to students or family members. Materials can contain information about the Legion Family (such as a web address), but should not overtly promote membership since that is not the purpose of this activity.
- f. Identify and assign roles to participants, such as greeter, ALA or Legion representative and moderator. While servicemembers don't necessarily expect civilians to address them by their military title, it is a nice courtesy to know the proper address.

3) Identify Veterans for Speaking Roles

- a. Once the possible dates have been selected with the school, identify one veteran or group of veterans from the appropriate war era who would be willing to speak about their experiences, or other topics suggested by the school. Note that some veterans may prefer to speak to older or younger audiences depending on how the activity is structured.

- b. There are many ways to find veterans who may be willing to participate. First, ask the family member(s) of those who belong to the American Legion Auxiliary. Second, contact the commander or a commission chairman of the Legion post. Third, ask the school if a staff member is a veteran and wishes to speak, or if they are aware of a parent or family member with military experience.
- c. Try to connect specific historical incidents with those veterans who may have served in that theater or at that time in history.
- d. Try to invite veterans from more than one branch of the armed forces and different periods of conflict. A wide array of speakers will give students an opportunity to hear many kinds of experiences.

4) Prepare the Veteran(s) and Audience

- a. Ask each veteran if there are topics they wish to discuss or not discuss. Work with the teachers to develop guidelines for students to respect the veterans' wishes.
- b. It is common for young people to want to ask a military service member if they have killed anyone. Teachers should discuss this in advance, requesting that students refrain from asking this question out of respect for the servicemember.
- c. Below is a list of potential questions and talking points to review with your veteran(s) in advance. It may even be helpful to assign questions to students at the event.
 - When and where did you serve?
 - Why did you join the service? What branch?
 - Why did you pick the branch that you were in?
 - What did it feel like to be in the service?
 - Would you demonstrate a proper salute?
 - What was boot camp like?
 - What were your job assignments?
 - What are some of your memorable experiences?
 - What did you do for entertainment?
 - Where did you travel during service?
 - Any humorous or unusual events?
 - What did you do in the days and weeks after you returned?
 - Did you form any close friendships, and do you still stay in touch?
 - Are you a part of any veterans' organizations?
 - Did your military experience influence your views on today's military and war?
 - How did the service affect your life?
 - What values did you learn from your experience?

5) Implement the Activity Plan

- a. Follow the agenda you have laid out through careful planning and consultation with the school official and staff.

- b. If time, space and resources allow, consider hosting a small reception for the veterans, school officials, key faculty, and a representative or a few of the student body to continue their conversations and exchange information.

Sample Agenda

1. Assemble the students and veterans.
 2. Welcome students and veterans to the activity. Give a brief overview of the project's purpose and introduce the veterans.
 3. Say the Pledge of Allegiance and/or have a local ROTC display the U.S. flag.
 4. Allow for a few remarks from any distinguished or notable guests you may have invited (e.g. Mayor, member of Congress, etc.)
 5. Allow the veterans to introduce themselves. After they have given brief introductory remarks, begin the Q&A session.
 6. Thank each veteran for participating and allow for individual remarks if they have any. If you wish to present each veteran with a gift, now would be the best time to do so.
 7. Consider saying the Pledge of Allegiance again to see if you hear the words differently in light of the presentation.
 8. Close out the project or event with a culminating 'Thank You' to all participants.
- 6) Follow-up with Veteran(s) and School(s)
- a. Send thank-you notes to the school leader and faculty. Ask if they would like to continue with the program in the future.
 - b. Provide the school leader with information about the Legion Family and Legion Family programs and resources for veterans, veteran and military families, and the general community, so that he/she may make referrals of students and their families to Legion Family programs and services.
 - c. Send thank-you notes to veteran speakers. Ask the veterans if they would be willing to be added to a list of willing speakers for future Veterans in Community Schools activities.

Promote ALA and Report Your Impact:

The ALA encourages members to identify themselves as such. When interacting with teachers, parents and veterans, however, it is important that members not push ALA membership aggressively, as that is not the primary purpose of this activity. Please, do feel free to wear ALA apparel and mention why you value association with The American Legion Family. Please also be sure to report your volunteer activities and hours to your unit's Education or VA&R committee chairman.

Additional Ideas:

Assign a unit member to take pictures or video during the activity, provided the school and the veterans consent to this documentation.

- Assign a unit member to prepare an article or blog post of the event for the unit and post publications.
- Gather publicity generated by students and schools themselves, such as news articles in the school newspaper or online postings, student essays written for class assignments, or thank you notes from students. Re-publicize this material, with the authors' permissions, in your unit or department communications.
- Be sure to report your Veterans in Community Schools activities in your individual or unit impact report to the unit's Education or VA&R Committee chairman.

Junior Activities

The Junior Activities program inspires active participation in members age 17 and under so that they will become engaging, productive members who will want to continue their American Legion Auxiliary membership into adulthood.

Committee Contact Information

junioractivities@ALAforVeterans.org

What can you do?

1. Build your Junior Activities program one member at a time by giving Junior members a voice and an opportunity to participate.

Ideas:

Members

- Ask to speak at your post's monthly meeting. Bring Junior members and membership applications with you. Personally invite Legion members to sign up their daughter, granddaughters and great-granddaughters. Older Junior members could speak about the value of their membership to the post.
- Sign up your own eligible daughters, granddaughters and great-granddaughters.
- "Like" the national Junior Activities Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/alajuniors/>). Share the posts to your friends and encourage them to sign up their eligible Juniors.
- Teach your Juniors about The American Legion Family's eligibility requirements.
- Encourage your Juniors to invite their friends to attend ALA functions and volunteering opportunities, even if they are not eligible to join.
- If you don't have Junior members of your own, be sure to support them anyway. Offer to help the Junior Activities chairman and participate in their fundraisers.
- If you are a unit officer or chairman, offer to mentor one of your unit's Juniors. Teach her about your role with the ALA.

Unit or Department

- Organize an active Juniors group. Give the Junior Activities chairman a budget to work with and space to hold meetings and fundraisers.
- Continually ask members to sign up their eligible daughters, granddaughters and great-granddaughters.
- Even if you only have one junior member, encourage her to organize a service project that your unit will participate in; it may attract other juniors to join.
- Include information on Junior membership and activities in monthly newsletters.
- Include information on Junior membership in renewal notices.

2. Engage Juniors in programs of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Ideas:

Members

- Bring your Junior(s) to a meeting with you. Ask your unit president if the Junior(s) can lead the Pledge.
- Mentor a Junior in your unit. Teach them about your role as an officer and chairman. Help them understand what we do and why it matters.
- Present any patches your Junior(s) earn at a unit meeting. They will be proud of their achievement and your fellow members will see what great work their Juniors are doing.
- Bring your Junior(s) to all appropriate ALA activities in which you participate. They can help distribute poppies, clean tables after dinners, etc.
- Older Junior members can mentor younger members by encouraging them to participate in Junior meetings, teaching them what they have learned about the ALA and our mission, and helping them earn their patches.

Unit or Department

- Support and assist your Junior Activities chairman. Give her a budget to work with, space for meetings and fundraisers and be flexible with your activities so that Juniors can be involved. Provide her with an updated copy of the Junior Activities Handbook, which can be purchased from Emblem Sales or downloaded from the Junior Member Activities page in the Members Only section at www.ALAforVeterans.org.
- Post Junior activities on your unit or department Facebook page with approval from parents and Junior member.
- Encourage older Juniors to become mentors to younger Juniors.

3. Make Junior meetings fun and informative.

Ideas:

Members

- Junior members can help plan and lead the meeting to make it more fun and informative to their age group.
- Be flexible during your meetings. Robert's Rules can be intimidating and boring for Juniors; there will be plenty of time for them to learn. Keep an orderly meeting, but don't put too much emphasis on protocol.
- Plan activities that are fun, yet teach about the mission of the ALA. Remember, they are kids with short attention spans. Activities that involve light exercise are helpful to burn off their youthful energy. If you need ideas, ask a teacher; it might end up being a great win/win as you share ideas.
- Crafts are another good activity for Juniors. They can make poppy crafts for a fundraiser, patriotic decorations for your post or local veterans home, handmade cards to send to veterans at your local VA, etc.
- Have snacks and drinks on hand. Juniors could even make poppy cookies to snack on.

Unit or Department

- Give your Juniors a place to display their crafts or artwork.
- Help your Junior Activities Chairman find places to distribute the cards and crafts made by Juniors.
- Offer to help during Junior meetings.

- Connect with other civic organizations to communicate The American Legion's legislative priorities for potential support and membership opportunities.
- Attend local informational town hall meetings to become better informed and to network with other community and civic organizations.
- Attend department and/or legislative meetings and activities.

- Meet with state- and national-level public officials to discuss issues facing veterans, servicemembers and their families. If possible, attend meetings with other Legion Family members.
 - Remember, we're putting a face on legislative topics. We can share the human reality on how issues affect veterans and their families.
- Complete the Legion's Congressional Meeting Report Form following any meeting with your U.S. representative, U.S. senator and/or their legislative staff members. Visit www.legion.org/legislative/aar to complete the form.
- Let your department Legislative chairman or department president know if you have a personal or professional relationship with a U.S. representative and/or U.S. senator who serves on the Veterans Affairs committees or a member of his/her legislative staff and that you'd be willing to participate in the ALA Veterans Affairs Legislative Mini-Council. Each of these members should be willing to contact the representative, senator or staff member when called to action by the Legion on an issue.

Unit

- Hold a unit meeting to go over the steps outlined by the ALA Legislative Advocacy Guide and discuss the legislative priorities.
- Invite a staff member of your U.S. representative and/or senator to a unit meeting so he/she can explain the best way to contact the official.
- Include legislative priorities in unit communications (social media, newsletters).
- Work with your Legion counterpart to make arrangements for Legion Family members to meet with respective Congressional delegation while on recess and in home districts.
- Choose a different legislative priority each month and allow time at each unit meeting for members to draft letters and communicate the importance of legislation related to veterans and their families. Watch for Legislative Action Alerts for any pressing priority.
- Invite your department chairman to a unit meeting to explain how the department initiates legislative advocacy and how each unit can play a role.
- Work with your Legion Family to host a "Meet the Candidate" night. Make veterans/military issues the primary topic for discussion. (See the How To Sheet for details).

Collaborate with your department’s Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation, National Security, Education and Americanism chairmen, depending on the legislative issue, to mobilize members and help distribute the “Calls to Action” throughout their spheres of influence.

HOW TO HOST A “MEET THE CANDIDATE” NIGHT

Committee:

Legislative

Contact Information for Questions:

legislative@ALAforVeterans.org

Encourage and empower members to be more knowledgeable to take action on The American Legion’s legislative priorities.

Step-by-Step Instructions:

A “meet the candidate” night is a question-and-answer session where all candidates for a specific election are invited to answer questions. It is not intended to be a debate.

Suggested Date of Event: 2-3 weeks before elections

3 Months Prior to the Event

1. In an effort to make this a Legion Family event, work with your Legion post, SAL squadron and Riders chapter (if applicable) to form a planning committee. If this isn’t a Legion Family event, the unit Legislative chairman and unit president should appoint a planning committee. Identify a place, date and time for the event. Map out a plan to get the word out to the general community. Think about if you’ll serve refreshments; will they be donated or do you need to buy them? Set guidelines for candidates before the event about literature, political signs and handouts.
 - a. If the place is the post home, ensure you have approval for the space and it’s on the calendar. Determine if your post allows political material (like signs) to be displayed on post property.
2. After the candidate filing deadline has passed, pull a list of candidates from your state’s election board or Supervisor of Elections’ website. Prepare a spreadsheet of all ballot-ready candidates (local, state and/or federal) who will be invited. List their name, address, phone, email, party and office. Allow ample time to contact them and receive their response.
3. Mail and email invitation letters with Legion Family Point of Contact name and the deadline date to reply. Remember: The Legion Family is nonpartisan, so you need to invite ALL candidates. Follow up periodically with candidates who have not replied. Suggest to the candidate they send another representative if there is a conflict in their scheduling.

2 Months Prior

1. The planning committee arranges for volunteers for the following roles:
 - a. Moderator (1) – Someone impartial and ideally not a part of the Legion Family, such as local news reporter or radio host or someone known and respected by the community. Using someone on TV or radio also ensures that it will be announced on TV/radio.

- b. Timekeeper (1) – To keep everyone on track. Each candidate should get an equal amount of time each round.
 - c. Legion Family Ambassadors (Several) – To man a table on programs and services your Legion Family offers. They should also have membership applications on hand.
 - d. Servers (Several) – Have a small team of volunteers serve refreshments.
 - e. Crowd Control (Several) – Volunteers to ensure that no attendee gets out of control. (Legion Family Sergeants at Arms might be great for this role).
 - f. Screeners (Several) - Volunteers to collect and review questions from attendees. Selected questions will be given to the moderator for a Q&A period.
Note: Candidates can stay after to talk with people and address their issues.*
 - g. Public Relations Coordinator (1) – Someone who will ensure that event is advertised in local newspapers, social media, websites and any other media outlet. They might invite a radio station or local TV station to stream the event live. (They might form a team to help promote the event on social media, create a hashtag, etc.).
2. The planning committee sets an agenda and how the event will proceed. Depending on the number of candidates in attendance, allow time for opening and closing speeches for each (this could be 2 to 3 minutes). After opening speeches and introductions, the moderator will ask for questions (that have been screened).
 - a. If question is to a particular candidate, allow 1-2 minutes for the answer and allow opposing candidate the same amount of time. There should be no rebuttals!
 - b. If it is a general question, the moderator can ask any candidate to address it, but again only 1-2 minutes per candidate.

Day of Event

1. Set up the room with the candidates in front of the audience.
2. Prepare tent cards for all candidates with their name, party and the office they're seeking. You may wish to seat candidates alphabetically in an effort to not show favoritism.
3. Set up a table to talk about the programs and services your Legion Family offers. They should also have membership applications on hand and other Legion Family branded information.

4. Setup a table for voter registration¹. Members of your Americanism committee might be good to man this table, or you can invite an outside organization, like the League of Women Voters to help with the voter registration.

After the Event

1. Follow up with thank you notes to all the candidates who participated.
2. If media did not attend, work with your Public Relations chairman to send pictures to be published and posted on social media.

¹ Remember: The deadline to register to vote may be up to 30 days prior to the election. Check with your local Election Board or Supervisor of Election.

What can you do?

1. Promote the Poppy program and increase poppy revenue.

Ideas:

Member

- Contact local businesses for permission to distribute poppies on their premises. Make sure you have permission for liability purposes; in some instances, permits are required.
- Send a thank you to businesses that allow distribution. Consider using the Poppy Poster thank you cards, available through Emblem Sales, for your communication.
- Help local schools organize poppy drives. Make the drive competitive. Give a citation to the class raising the most money during their poppy drive.
- Wear a poppy to promote conversation and interest.

Unit

- Educate your community about how funds collected help veterans.
- Contact local legislative offices to announce poppy distribution days, and request proclamations declaring Poppy Days in your community.
- Deliver poppies to local media outlets (television, newspaper and radio) along with facts about where and when poppies will be distributed in your community. Even if they are not visible “on air,” these people tend to be influencers in the community.

Department

- Distribute material and make it available to members. Poppy tools are available at www.ALAforVeterans.org.
- Organize a department poppy drive with The American Legion Family. Encourage The American Legion, Sons of The American Legion, Riders, and Junior members to make poppy distribution rules that are available at your department headquarters for members.
- Publish material for units in your department to send to organizations and businesses to foster positive relationships and encourage their owners to promote the poppy.
- Have your department leaders promote the Poppy program by writing letters to community leaders and hold a Poppy Making Day. Teach your leaders about the poppy’s symbolism and how the poppy can build positive relationships. Consider using the Poppy Poster thank you cards, available through Emblem Sales, for your communication.

2. Increase the number of poppy makers in your department.

Ideas:

Member

- Set up meetings with recreational and occupational therapists at local Department of Veterans Affairs medical centers (VAMCs), Community Based Outpatient Clinics (CBOCs) or community hospitals to incorporate poppy-making into their therapy programs.

Unit

- Distribute “How to Recruit New Poppy Makers” promotion information. See resource section in this program Plan for information.
- Partner with The American Legion to recruit poppy makers within their post homes and departments.
- Post information on “How Veterans Can Make Money by Making Poppies” in local VA homes, medical centers, clinics, nursing homes and other community organizations that house and care for veterans.

Department

- Inform veterans that those enrolled in department poppy production will be paid for each poppy completed, as outlined in department agreement with the facility (if applicable).

3. Celebrate National Poppy Day and educate your community on the meaning and the history of the poppy.

Ideas:

Member

- Search Pinterest.com for ideas of items you could distribute alongside red crepe paper poppies, like Spritz cookies.
- Send a bouquet of poppies and bookmarks to school with your child.
- Make a poppy wreath for the door of your home, office, or school.
- Collect donations at your workplace/hair salon/doctor’s office to donate to the Poppy program.
- Tell your story on Facebook of who your poppy represents or remembers on National Poppy Day. Don’t forget to tag with #PoppyDay #LegionFamily.

Unit

- Talk to leaders of nearby post and units to make sure key areas in your community are covered, and organize a poppy distribution at local Memorial Day ceremonies. Make sure to wear your Auxiliary branded apparel.
- Invite a local dignitary to lay a poppy wreath at a memorial in your community and invite unit members to be present. Consider singing patriotic songs or other ways to involve your unit members.

2. Support rehabilitation and healing of veterans through arts, crafts, and hobbies.

National Veterans Creative Arts Festival (NVCAF)

NVCAF is the national, annual competition and festival that recognizes the progress and recovery made through recreation therapy and raises the visibility of the creative achievements of our nation’s veterans after disease, disability or life crisis. As the national presenting sponsor, the American Legion Auxiliary should strive to increase monetary support by encouraging departments to sponsor fundraisers that will contribute to the increased awareness and support of this program.

Ideas:

Members/Units

- Obtain and become familiar with the ALA Guide for Volunteers.
- Help your unit and department earn recognition at National Convention through donations to support VA Creative Arts Festivals. Volunteer individually, with a fellow member, or as a unit at a local Creative Arts Festival.
- Identify arts, crafts and hobby projects targeted to veterans (such as writing, oral history recording, visual and performing arts, quilting and gardening). A unit may organize a project of its own or introduce a unit to veteran arts, crafts and hobby projects already operational in the community.
- Contribute donated supplies to help supplement visual veteran artists’ needs for their projects. Contact your department chairman or your local VA hospital coordinator for a list of items.

- Donate, through departments, funds that help local veterans attend state and national Wheel Chair Games, Veterans Creative Arts Festivals, Paralympics, etc.

Department

- Promote member awareness of the Auxiliary's vital role as the presenting sponsor of the National Veterans Creative Arts Festival (NVCAF).
- Encourage units and individuals to support state VA Creative Arts Festivals through donations. Contributing departments will be recognized at National Convention. One method may include challenging units to earn a bronze, silver or gold award given by NVCAF in recognition for financial donations to the program. Departments, units or individuals can earn the Bronze award for donations to the National Veterans Creative Arts Festival of $1,000 to $1,999; the Silver award for donating $2,000 to $4,999; or the Gold award for $5,000 and above. ALA National Headquarters submits qualifying donations to NVCAF staff each July. Donations considered are those received in the national office from August 1, 2016, to July 31, 2017.
- Recruit members to volunteer at local Veterans Creative Arts Festivals conducted by many VA health care systems across the country.
- Apply to the ALA Foundation for an ALA Local Veterans Creative Arts Festival/Creative Arts Workshop Grant to assist your local VA health care system in preparing for and/or conducting a local Creative Arts Festival.
- Advocate for art therapy, music therapy, drama and recreational therapy programs in VA health care systems.
- Research other forms of rehabilitation for veterans such as the National Wheel Chair games. Distribute contact information to units.

3. Help The American Legion, State Department of Veterans Affairs and Chamber of Commerce promote job fairs for veterans and their families.

Ideas:

Members

- Take part in a veteran job fair by organizing or working at an informational table. Other opportunities include helping implement a Legion-sponsored job fair and/or co-hosting a Legion Family information table at a U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation-sponsored job fair. Additionally, Auxiliary members may initiate and host a job fair for veterans in their community.

- Send notes and provide supplies to support those who volunteer at VA facilities.
- Enter all of your VAVS hours into the VAVS tracking system. Note: VA Healthcare facilities volunteer hour tracking system is different from the tracking utilized for ALA hour bars. Please consult your department.

(Note: Volunteers in veterans' state homes that have a Memorandum of Understanding with a VA health care system are eligible to be considered VAVS volunteers.)

5. There isn't a VA hospital close to your community? Find opportunities for Auxiliary members to serve veterans in your area. These hours will count toward your Service to Veterans pin and hour bars.

Service to Veterans recognizes volunteers who provide service to veterans, servicemembers and their families outside a VAMC. Volunteers conduct projects and work for military/veterans and/or families from their homes and in their communities. Service to Veterans volunteers maintain their own recordkeeping and dollars spent. The Service to Veterans pin has been designed to reflect the work of those who volunteer in their communities and at home for veterans. Hour bars, which attach to the pin, are also available to earn. More information may be in the Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation: A Guide for Volunteers available online for download at www.alaforveterans.org. To purchase a printed copy, please visit www.emblem.legion.org.

- Buy school supplies, throw a baby shower, or send care packages to military kids who are headed to college.

- Encourage units and individual members to participate in the Quilts of Valor project through the Quilts of Valor Foundation: www.qovf.org.

6. Transitioning back to civilian life is one of the biggest challenges veterans face today. Educate yourself about resources so you can help veterans access all their VA benefits, not just health care. Work with your local American Legion Post Service Officer.

HOW TO RAISE AWARENESS ABOUT THE EVER-INCREASING NUMBER OF HOMELESS VETERANS

Committee:

Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation

Contact Information for Questions:

va&r@ALAforVeterans.org

Raise awareness in your communities about the ever-increasing number of homeless veterans, especially women veterans and those with children.

Background information:

- The National Coalition for Homeless Veterans states that homeless veterans are mostly males, but about 8% are females. Most are single and many may suffer from mental illness, alcohol and/or substance abuse. About 12,700 veterans of the recent conflicts were homeless in 2014 and the number of younger homeless veterans is increasing. 77% of homeless female veterans are unemployed. Your unit can get involved in several ways. We hope to supply you with ideas that will help you participate in the fight against homelessness and its impact on veterans.

Step-by-Step Instructions:

- First, learn about the homeless veterans in your area. Identify the needs of the homeless veteran population in your area by contacting community organizations like shelters, food banks, and if available, a Veterans Administration Medical Center (VAMC).
- If you have a VAMC in your area, work with the VAMC homeless coordinator to see what kinds of programs they already have in place and identify how your unit can help.
- Use funds collected through the Poppy program to support the needs of homeless veterans.
- Advertise the Department of Veterans Affairs help line for homeless veterans in homeless shelters, community centers, VAMC's, CBOCs, local hospitals, mental health service facilities and other community centers in your area. The hotline, 1-800-4AID-VET or 1-877-424-3838 is a free, confidential hotline that pairs homeless veterans and their families with trained counselors who are able to refer veterans to services in their area. Posters are available at no cost on www.ALAforVeterans.org. Also visit www.suicidepreventionlifeline.org/Veterans/Default.aspx.
- Get the word out! As a unit or member, contact your local and state representatives in person, by mail, phone or email. Ask them to keep veteran legislation on their agendas.
- The Department of Veterans Affairs also has founded a national suicide prevention hotline to ensure veterans in emotional crisis have free 24/7 access to trained counselors. Ask the local homeless shelter, hospital, schools, community centers, mental health services facilities and other public places to post the free flyer or hand out free brochures. Visit www.suicidepreventionlifeline.org/Veterans/Default.aspx.

Three projects your unit might consider:

- Host a stand down or Homeless Veterans' health fair. Contact your local VAMC homeless outreach coordinator or visit the National Coalition for Homeless Veterans website www.nchv.com. They have a simple guide to follow called, Stand Down Guide.
- Assemble Buddy Baskets for homeless veterans transitioning into housing. Visit www.ALAforVeterans.org for a How To Sheet that further details the Buddy Basket process.
- Work with your Legion Family to develop a fundraising plan. These funds can be used for emergency housing, supporting local shelters, and supplying veterans with basic needs. Contact local businesses, churches, and civic groups, for item and monetary donations. Ask to receive a portion of the proceeds raised at a community event. For example ask an organization to sponsor a 5k run/walk on behalf of homeless veterans. Involve media to ensure donors are recognized for their support of America's veterans.

HOW TO INCREASE DONATIONS TO THE NATIONAL VETERANS CREATIVE ARTS FESTIVAL

Committee:

Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation

Contact Information for Questions:

va&r@alaforveterans.org

Objective:

#3 Support rehabilitation of veterans through art therapy by fulfilling the Auxiliary's annual financial obligation as a presenting co-sponsor of the National Veterans Creative Arts Festival (NVCAF). Step-by-Step Instructions:

- Check with your department VA&R chairman to see what your unit goal is, and develop a plan to meet that goal.
- Once you have your goal, share it with your unit and keep them informed about your fundraising progress.
- Here are some ideas to help you develop your plan and achieve your goals. Brainstorm with your unit to come up with ideas that will work for your members:
 - Order your donation cans from National Headquarters today! This year, we are introducing donation cans to help your unit raise funds for NVCAF. A limited number of cans will be available, so check with your department VA&R chairman about details on how to order. Decorative wraps for cans will be available from National Headquarters or online for free at www.ALAforVeterans.org. The cans will be decorated with information about NVCAF and pictures from the event. You can place one or more cans in your Post home and make them available at each meeting. Ask banks, local retailers and many more places for spots to display our NVCAF contribution cans. Just use your imagination. It will be a great way for your Unit to reach your fundraising goal for NVCAF. More information will follow; watch for content posted in bulletins and on the website.
 - At each of your unit meetings, have a penny parade. Set an overall goal of how much you want to raise at each meeting that will help you make that overall goal.
 - A no-bake sale is an easy way to help reach your unit's fundraising goal. Assign a committee to select a date for your no-bake sale. Your invitation should include information about NVCAF. Have the committee send an invitation to the members of your unit and post. After your sale, be sure to let your unit and post know how much money was raised for NVCAF.
- Assign a small committee to ask local businesses for in-kind donations for a special NVCAF raffle. With the items collected, you can create special baskets to raffle. Don't forget to ask your friends and family to purchase raffle tickets. Take the February 2013 issue of the Auxiliary magazine. Take the attached fact sheet with you to help explain the festival. When you visit local businesses, be sure your committee is well informed. For additional information visit www.creativeartsfestival.va.gov/.

- Hold your raffle at a special fundraising dinner for NVCAF. Invite the local business leaders who contributed and community leaders to the event (mayor, police and fire chief, Chamber of Commerce plus the others who are important in your community).
- If you have a veterans hospital or veterans home in your area, check with your hospital or home representative to see if they have local Creative Arts program. Check to see if they have any medal winners (gold, silver and bronze). If they do, invite the participants to your fundraiser and ask them to bring their art and talent. You might ask if they are willing to donate a piece of art for your fundraiser. Perhaps the performing arts medal winners would provide entertainment. If you don't have access to a Creative Arts artist, you can access a list of artists to see if any are in your area:
<http://www.va.gov/opa/speceven/caf/2010/participant-info.asp>.
- Don't forget to include your Legion Family in your event. The American Legion and Sons of The American Legion are a great help, and getting them involved helps build a strong Family relationship.
- Remember to promote your event. Send information to your local newspaper, write a letter to the editor, and invite local reporters and news stations to your event.
- A great and simple way to raise funds for NVCAF is to incorporate it into your poppy program. Check with your department VA&R chairman or Poppy chairman for your department's approved dates to distribute poppies (i.e., Memorial Day, Veterans Day, etc.). Select a small group of volunteers who are willing to distribute poppies one day just for the NVCAF. Select a good spot—Target, Wal-Mart, local market, liquor store or anywhere in your community that has lots of traffic. Be sure to get approval from the location before you go so your hard work will be successful. Bring materials with you that reference NVCAF and what it does for participants.
- Does your local veterans hospital or veterans home have a Creative Arts Festival? If not, it's a great opportunity for your unit members to work with your local VA hospital or home to get one started. How to Facilitate a Local Veterans Creative Arts Festival how-to sheet, found in the Members Only Area on the VA&R program page of the National website, will help you get started. Work with your hospital representative to see how you can get this project started. If you don't know who your representative is, check with your department VA&R chairman. This year, a grant fund has been set up to help your local VA hospital or VA home with its Creative Arts Festival and/or workshop. The fund is also available for hospitals that want to start a new local Creative Arts Festival or Creative Arts Workshop. You can find the application for the mini-grant www.ALAforVeterans.org.
- Once you get your local Creative Arts Festival started, or if you have one in your area, why not host a mini Creative Arts Festival at your post home or at a facility at your hospital/home? Your Unit can supply art supplies, volunteers and refreshments. Be sure to work with the recreational therapist at your local hospital/home, and don't forget that you can use poppy funds for this event.

- Don't forget to promote your local Creative Arts Festival to all veterans in your area (i.e., letter to the editor, flyers in local posts, your VA hospital/home—just to name a few).
- Did you know that awards are presented to departments, Units and individuals that donate money to NVCAF? Awards are presented for Bronze ($1,000 to $2,499), Silver ($2,500 to $4,999), and Gold ($5,000 to $14,999) by close of books of the administrative year.
- As unit chairman, you can create a special awards program for your members' participation in the Creative Arts program. Your awards program might include awards for different levels of contributions or the most creative fundraiser.
- The National Veterans Creative Arts Festival is a week of learning, exploring fellowship and celebration of the healing power of the arts. Each dollar you raise helps a veteran in his or her quest for healing. Be creative in your fundraising and please pass on your success and struggles to your department VA&R chairman with a cc to your division chairman.

Auxiliary Emergency Fund (AEF)

The Auxiliary Emergency Fund provides temporary financial assistance to eligible members during times of financial crises or weather-related emergencies and natural disasters and promotes awareness and knowledge of the program.

Committee Contact Information

aef@ALAforVeterans.org

What Can You Do?

- 1. Familiarize each unit and department with what AEF can and cannot do, where to locate the current application and how to apply.

Ideas:

Member

- Distribute the “Before you Begin – Frequently Asked Questions” sheet and AEF brochure found at www.ALAforVeterans.org to eligible members. Promote as a benefit to new members.

Unit

- Have printed applications and AEF brochures available during unit meetings and at the local post.

Department

- Educate each unit and department AEF chairman on Auxiliary Emergency Fund roles and responsibilities. Encourage AEF chairman to procure brochures for their eligible members. This can be at www.ALAforVeterans.org.

- 2. Help the National Auxiliary Emergency Fund obtain donations by supporting department and unit fundraisers.

Ideas:

Member

- Support fundraisers sponsored by your department and unit.
- Make a personal donation to the AEF. Donations of $50 or more will receive a pin requested by your department from National Headquarters.

Unit

- Put an AEF donation can in your local post (visit www.ALAforVeterans.org for a free, downloadable can label). Solicit local businesses for monetary or in-kind donations to your unit for AEF.

- Schedule an annual “Members Helping Members” night at your local post. Not only is this a great time for an AEF fundraiser, but it gives you the opportunity to share information about what makes a member eligible to receive help from the AEF. Have membership applications available, and sign up new members during an event. Legion members might sign up eligible relatives in order to provide this protection for them. Prior to the event, be sure all unit members have read and are familiar with the AEF frequently asked questions as well as the criteria for assistance.

Department

- Share fundraising ideas on all levels through newsletters, bulletins and stories, and circulate at every meeting. Along with the brochures, inform members that any donation of $50 or more will receive a pin. AEF Donation Pin Order Forms are available at www.ALAforVeterans.org or by contacting National Headquarters at (317) 569-4500, or by emailing your request to aef@ALAforVeterans.org. Departments track and distribute pins to individual members.

Programs and Activities

1. The AEF brochure is available through departments and also online at www.ALAforVeterans.org
2. Please use the current form and follow directions to ensure that evaluation and processing are completed in a timely fashion. Incomplete applications can delay the application process. The current application and expedited application are available at www.ALAforVeterans.org.
3. Forms are available to order pins for individuals who donate $50 or more. AEF Donation Pin Order Forms are available at www.ALAforVeterans.org, by contacting National Headquarters at (317) 569-4500, or by emailing your request to aef@ALAforVeterans.org. Departments track and distribute pins to individual members.
4. AEF frequently asked questions and additional AEF information are available on the AEF page at www.ALAforVeterans.org.
5. The following core rules apply to the Auxiliary Emergency Fund:
 - a. Temporary assistance to eligible members during:
 - A time of financial crisis when no other source of aid is readily available to pay for shelter, food and utilities.
 - Weather-related emergencies and natural disasters, for food and shelter.
 - Educational training for eligible members who lack the necessary skills for employment or to upgrade competitive workforce skills.
 - b. Assistance will not be granted to pay accumulated debts or medical expenses. The intent is to help members who have suffered a financial setback and is meant to be a bridge offering a helping hand until financial stability is re-established. Incomplete applications and missing documentation will significantly slow processing the case file.
 - c. Eligibility: Persons who have been members of the American Legion Auxiliary for at least the immediate past two consecutive years and whose current membership dues are paid at the time the emergency occurs (three consecutive years' dues) may apply for assistance.

- d. Assistance provided: The maximum grant amount is $2,400, disbursed as the Auxiliary Emergency Fund Grant Committee determines.

2017-2022 American Legion Auxiliary Programs Action Plan

History Committee

The heart of any organization's history is in its records – items that officers, members, directors, staff, and volunteers have produced and compiled over the years. They provide unique testimony to the achievements of an organization.

Records also contribute in other ways:

- Members are able to look back and learn what efforts were successful, or unsuccessful, and why. Understanding the missteps as well as the achievements can assist in determining a future strategy.
- Exhibiting materials stimulates enthusiasm and encourages members to maintain the organization's standards and promote its future. Pride in the organization has a direct correlation to motivating the current membership to bring in new members, achieve more goals, create a sense of strength and conviction while developing leaders.
- Maintaining and preserving our records are invaluable to society by serving as informative and educational resources to a variety of potential users. In other words, an organization benefits itself and the public by preserving its records and making them available for use by everyone inside and outside the organization.

The ALA history is contained in artifacts, our documents, newspaper articles, publications, meeting minutes, photos, newsletters, written histories, etc. We do this to honor those members who have made differences in our organization at all levels. Additionally, history allows us to build a stronger organization based upon those experiences. The Cavalcade of Memories museum, as well as the library and archives located at ALA National Headquarters, serve as a resource for our members, volunteers, staff, and the general public.

Committee Contact Information

History@ALAforVeterans.org

What can you do?

1. If you currently have a History/Cavalcade committee, mirror the efforts of National Headquarters to promote your history.

Ideas:

Member

- Share Auxiliary memorabilia with your unit/department.
- Ask longtime members or family of deceased members if they would like to donate an item(s).
- If you enjoy history and want to learn more, volunteer to be the History/Cavalcade chairman or committee member for your unit/department.

Unit and Department

- Appoint a History/Cavalcade Committee chairman. Invite members and units to participate.
- Post your unit history on the Legion's Centennial Celebration webpage at <http://centennial.legion.org/>.

- Involve your Junior members in your activities, helping them earn the History patch.
- Participate in the Members Remember project (see Resources).
- Create displays that are attractive, interesting, and relevant.
- Highlight historical/important/interesting events in your unit/department.
- Include memorabilia of your honorary Junior presidents.
- Use new technology to create and maintain digital images and records. Be sure to make more than one digital copy and store them in different places.
- Make an inventory of your entire collection. This includes your organizational documents, written histories, scrapbooks, etc. Be sure to include information such as who donated the item and when.
- Periodically, feature a historical item or write an article about an important time in the unit's/department's history for your newsletter.
- Attend local workshops to learn preservation and conservation methods.
- Partner with local museums, historical societies, public libraries, or local merchants for consulting and displaying.
- Ask members to consider donating or loaning important items they may have.

2. If you do not currently have a History/Cavalcade committee and/or a Cavalcade of Memories Museum, initiate the project.

Ideas:

Members

- Look through your own collection; assist a fellow member in searching through her collection; or search throughout the post/unit home for items.
- Gather photos and document the event(s) at which they were taken as well as the people in the photos.
- Learn the history of your unit, department, and national organization. If you do not have a written unit or department history, volunteer to help put one together.
- Determine if your materials should be displayed in the unit or department Cavalcade of Memories.
- For documents and photos, digitize them, making sure to make more than one copy and that the additional copies are stored in different places.

Units and Departments

- Your history is in more places than just artifacts. It is in your meeting minutes, governing documents, newspaper articles, photos, etc. Set up a system as to how these will be kept.
- Make sure you initiate a record management program. Review the records management policy sample in the Department Operations Guide to see which records you are mandated to keep permanently.
- If you have no room to keep these items, contact a local historical society, state library, or university to see if they can keep them for you.

3. Become visible throughout your community and let them know the ALA's history and contributions to the community, state, nation, and the world.

Ideas:

Members

- Talk about the history of your unit/department at other community functions you attend.
- Invite people to tour your Cavalcade of Memories, photos, documents, etc.
- Tell your story. Refer to the “What’s Your Story” article in Resources.

Units and Departments

- Partner with local museums, historical societies, public libraries, or university archives for consulting, displaying, and preservation advice. If there is no space available for your collection, determine if one of the above organizations may be interested in sharing some of their space for your collection.
- Invite the community and members to tour the area, familiarizing themselves with the organization’s history and accomplishments.

HOW TO RECORD AND POST TO “MEMBERS REMEMBER”

Committee:

History

Contact Information for Questions:

History@ALAforVeterans.org

Objective:

Record the ALA’s history through the eyes of its members

Background Information

The history of the American Legion Auxiliary begins back in November 1919, and continues with you. The organization’s history, like any other history, is more than names and dates. It is about its membership and how it developed the ALA’s programs and projects to fulfill our mission of serving the veterans, servicemembers, and their families who sacrifice much for this country of ours.

A written history can only tell so much. However, when an organization’s history is told through the eyes of its membership, everyone learns a great deal more about who we are, what we do, and why we matter.

Step-by-Step Instructions

Here are some tips:

- This is a two-person project so find someone to assist. This is a good time to enlist the help of your 9th-12th grade Junior members as it is a required activity in earning the History Patch. If your unit does not have Junior members, enlist the assistance of college students.
- Find longtime members of the Auxiliary and ask them to share their stories in a video. These stories can be about:
 - A special project,
 - A particular highlight during her membership
 - How many generations of her family have been members and why
 - If a chartered member, her experience in starting the unit
- Find a location where it is quiet and where there will be no interruptions.
- Record with iPhones/Smartphones. Please keep in mind that your video file must be either a .mov; .avi; .mpeg; or a .wmv file extension.
- Each recording should be no longer than five (5) minutes long. You may make more than one. Cover one topic in each video.
- Post the video on YouTube. An instructional video on how to upload is located at www.youtube.com/watch?v=_O7iUiftbKU.
 - Go to YouTube at <https://www.youtube.com>
 - Give the video the following title: ALA Dept. of __ (two letter abbreviation for your state) Unit ____ Members Remember.

- Provide a description and tags that will help people locate the video easily.

Objective:

Celebrate the special women of our organization

Background Information

The month of March is dedicated to the celebration of women's history. It corresponds with International Women's Day on March 8th. What could be better for a women's organization to do than celebrate their own history? Our Auxiliary members have accomplished a great deal all around the world. Now it's time to celebrate what makes them so special!

Step-by-Step Instructions

What can we do?

- Learn more about Auxiliary members who made history within your department or unit. This could include girls sponsored to ALA Girls State who have gone on to do great things or those members who have improved their communities, state or country.
- Celebrate the women in your life – mom, grandma, even your sister.
- Donate money to the ALA Cavalcade of Memories budget at the unit, department, or national level in honor of a special woman.
- Set up a display in honor of those members who have gone above and beyond the ALA's mission.
- Write an article for your unit/department newsletter about Women's History Month or about the woman you are honoring.
- Check out how women's fashion has changed over time in the Auxiliary, as well as women's hair fashion. There has been a great deal of change from 1919 to today!
- Research and write about how the former and present members make a difference in the community and share with others.
- Put up a display at your local library, historical society, or storefront, celebrating the work that the women of the ALA have done and still do every day.

History

Remember – these activities can be shared with the Junior members. Honoring our members provides them with a role model. Sharing our history with our Junior members allows them to know that they, too, are valuable members of this great organization. Hopefully, they will begin to own this history and remain members throughout their lifetimes.

HOW TO INVOLVE A JUNIOR MEMBER

Committee:

History

Contact Information for Questions:

History@ALAforVeterans.org

Objective:

Help a Junior member (9th – 12th grades) earn the new History Patch

Background Information

In a joint effort with the National Junior Activities Committee, we have developed a History Patch for our high school (9th – 12th grades) Junior members. These young ladies have an opportunity to work with, learn from, and take ownership of the American Legion Auxiliary history. It is important for them to understand that they are a part of the Auxiliary's history. By earning this patch, they may become interested not only in the history itself, but in preserving it as well, and become a unit's or department's History/Cavalcade chairman.

Step-by-Step Instructions

What can we do?

- Contact the department Junior Activities chairman and ask her to help promote this new patch. Make joint announcements at your fall/winter/spring meetings, division/district meetings, etc.
- Write an article about the patch for the department newsletter.
- Make a poster to promote the patch for meetings. Include the patch and activities list (see below).
- Encourage the unit History/Cavalcade chairmen to promote this patch and work with their unit Junior Activities committee chairman.
- Find a high school aged Junior member and be a mentor to her as she works the activities to earn the patch.

Constitution & Bylaws

The Constitution & Bylaws program informs and educates members of the American Legion Auxiliary on the importance and power of properly written, reviewed and updated documents, policies and procedures at all levels. Constitution & Bylaws are the basis for governance of your department, district, county, and unit. Preparing and adhering to updated Constitution, Bylaws and Standing Rules will ensure a more successful organizational process, and provide the structures to follow at all levels of our organization.

HOW TO WRITE STANDING RULES

Committee:

Constitution & Bylaws

Contact Information for Questions:

constitution&bylaws@ALAforVeterans.org or your department Constitution & Bylaws chairman

Step-by-Step Instructions:

- Start with a specific need that relates to the administration of your department, district or unit (e.g., awards you present, budget for convention attendees, voting body).
- Write the Standing Rule. See “Guidelines for Writing Standing Rules” on the next page.
- Present it at a department, district or unit meeting.
- A standing rule can be adopted with majority vote at any regular meeting with advance notice, unless otherwise stipulated in the bylaws. Without advance notice, a standing rule requires a 2/3 vote for adoption.
- The Standing Rules document should be kept up-to-date, and each new Standing Rule should record the date it was adopted.

GUIDELINES FOR WRITING STANDING RULES

Standing Rules are those rules and regulations which relate to the details of the administration of an organization for the guidance of an assembly. The following points are intended to be a helpful guide for writing or updating Standing Rules. Not every topic or item will apply in every instance, and some things may not be listed.

The (NAME AND NUMBER) of the _____ District, American Legion Auxiliary, hereby adopts the Constitution & Bylaws as prescribed by the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of _____.

The most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order, in all questions not governed by articles of the National, (department/district/unit) Constitution & Bylaws, shall govern this (department/district/unit).

1. State time (day and hour) of meeting, place of meeting and information on notification of meeting. Are you meeting all twelve (12) months?

6. Installation of officers – when, where, who is in charge.
7. Equipment – rules for loaning, maintenance, etc.
8. Finances
 - a. Rent
 - b. Utilities
 - c. Working funds for officers, chairmen, poppy purchases, ALA Girls State, Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation, etc.
 - d. Annual gifts for district president's visit, retiring officers, etc.

 - f. Expenses for delegates to department convention, fall conference, district meetings, etc. (registration fee, mileage, per diem)
 - g. How bills are paid and who signs the checks
 - h. Contest prizes – how much for poppy, essay contests, etc.
 - i. Department and district mandatory funds
 - j. Arrangements for special dinners – funerals, etc.
 - k. Annual donations to special programs or charities
9. The fiscal year of this department/district/unit will be _____.
10. Audit – when and by whom.
11. This paragraph should appear at the end of your Standing Rules: “Standing Rules are adopted by a majority vote and may be amended by two-thirds (2/3) vote at any meeting, or if notice has been given, by a majority vote.” Standing Rules are usually adopted from time to time, as they are needed, in the form of resolutions.

12. The date of the meeting at which these Standing Rules were approved MUST be shown. ALSO – The signature of the Constitution & Bylaws chairman and president or secretary MUST appear on the bottom of the list.

HOW TO WRITE A RESOLUTION

Committee:

Constitution & Bylaws

Contact Information for Questions:

constitution&bylaws@ALAforVeterans.org or your department Constitution & Bylaws chairman

Step-by-Step Instructions:

- A resolution is a written, formal motion. Resolutions are used because the motion may be presented in written form with some of the reasons included in the document. If written well, the resolution makes it easier for members to consider the proposal. Importance, length and complexity of the motion, and size and formality of the assembly are major considerations in using resolutions.
- A resolution has two sections - the resolving clauses and the reasons. Resolving clauses tell the specifics of the proposal. The main reasons a motion should be adopted are included in the "Whereas" clauses. Neither section should include more clauses than are absolutely necessary. Simple, but specific is best.
- When developing a written motion or resolution, consult with members who can be of assistance to improve the wording and whose support will assist in its adoption.
- The two sections of a resolution can be written in either order, but many believe it is better to write the main motion first and then write the reasons it should be adopted. This way, you first determine what is to be done. Focus on the most crucial specifics essential in the motion. Say it in one or two sentences. A third sentence could include who is responsible and a timeline.
- Once the main motion is determined, develop three to five statements to support the adoption of it. These are worded as "Whereas" clauses. These points should be the most important and least controversial arguments for the motion. Less than three points may not make the case depending on the motion, and more than five may get too complicated and confuse the issue. Again, it is important to stay focused on the points that are strictly necessary. Leave other points for the discussion.
- When the resolution is finally written, it begins with the "Whereas" clauses and ends with the resolved clauses. Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised prescribes the proper format, capitalization and punctuation. Again, it is a good idea to consult with members who can be of assistance, as well as the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, to ensure your resolution is correctly formatted.

See the sample resolution in Support Tools at www.ALAforVeterans.org.

HOW TO BE AN EFFECTIVE PARLIAMENTARIAN

Committee:

Constitution & Bylaws

Contact Information for Questions:

constitution&bylaws@ALAforVeterans.org or your department Constitution & Bylaws chairman

Step-by-Step Instructions:

- BE IMPARTIAL – The parliamentarian is much like an official in a game. She is to be impartial and make sure everyone plays by the rules. Similarly, as the official does not play the game, the parliamentarian does not exercise the same rights as a member. She does not make motions, debate, or vote, except by ballot.
- KNOW THE RULES – Just as a referee must know the rules of the game, a parliamentarian must know the rules of the organization and of the parliamentary authority. As the size of the group increases, so must the depth of knowledge of the parliamentarian. A department parliamentarian must know and understand bylaws, standing rules, and parliamentary procedure much better than a unit parliamentarian.
- PRESIDENT'S APPOINTMENT – The president appoints the parliamentarian for her knowledge and skills, not as an honor or special appointment for a friend. The parliamentarian should be someone reliable and trusted to provide accurate advice for everyone on both sides of an issue. The president and parliamentarian should have a good working relationship.
- VARIED ROLES – The parliamentarian has a variety of duties before and during meetings with members, committees, officers, and boards. The goal is for the business to be handled properly and smoothly.
- DUTIES BEFORE A MEETING – Review the agenda with the president to be familiar with the business and possible problems that may arise. Review the bylaws and standing rules of the organization. Work with any committee members who request assistance in preparing reports for the meeting.
- DUTIES DURING A MEETING – Preparatory work before the meeting should reduce the work necessary during the meeting. The parliamentarian should arrive early to counsel as needed. Have a copy of the governing documents at the meeting. Keep track of the motions to assist the presiding officer. Be as inconspicuous as possible. Provide advice when requested and communicate with the president tactfully and discreetly. Remain impartial and be prepared to cite references if needed. Be available after the meeting for further counsel.

- DUTIES FOR A CONVENTION – The duties of the parliamentarian for a convention include those listed for meetings. Also be prepared to advise convention committees such as resolutions, credentials, rules, and elections. Review the script with the presiding officer. Stay focused, steady, patient, and fair.
- PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY – Any organization requires rules of operation. The most important should be the hardest to change. Typically these include a Corporate Charter, Constitution and/or Bylaws, Rules of Order such as Robert's Rules, and Standing Rules. The Charter, Constitution, Bylaws, and Standing Rules are written specifically for a given organization. Those rules take precedence in governance. On matters not specifically addressed in those documents, the Rules of Order specified in the Bylaws are the parliamentary authority. This is usually the most recent edition Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised. A parliamentarian should spend time studying these rules.
- HELP MEMBERS LEARN – During your year of service as parliamentarian also consider working with members to educate them in parliamentary procedure. This can be as you counsel them in their roles or teach lessons to further develop their knowledge and skills.
- DEVELOP YOUR KNOWLEDGE – Good parliamentarians are always learning their craft. Invest in your knowledge. Resources are available through Emblem Sales, through parliamentary associations, and online.

HOW TO UTILIZE A MEMBER DATA SURVEY FORM

Committee:

Leadership

Contact Information for Questions:

Leadership@ALAforVeterans.org

Utilize member strengths (ALA Centennial Strategic Plan, Goal 3D)

Not all members profess to be leaders but each member of your unit brings with her talents and strengths that will enhance the unit. While meetings allow us to become acquainted with members, not all members are able or willing to attend. You still would like their help when needed. Far too often we don't really know each member's training, likes or what she is able to offer the unit.

What is the purpose of a member data survey?

This form, when completed by each unit member, will give the unit a snapshot of the strengths each member possesses. Have each member of your unit complete a form. Decide who in the unit will be responsible for maintaining member records. Then, use these forms when you need help in the unit. For example, need a yearly audit of your "books?" The survey has identified someone in your unit who is a professional accountant. She doesn't come to meetings, but she may be willing to help the unit by auditing the books.

Ideas:

- Make copies of the data survey form and have each member in your unit complete and return it to the unit president. (The Data Survey Form is in the Leadership Program Action Plan how to sheets.)
- Have a designated person or committee members contact unit members who do not attend meetings to explain and complete the form remotely.
- The unit president compiles survey information and establishes her own references.
- The unit selects a person responsible for maintaining member survey records.
- The department provides a copy of the survey on their website for units to download, and includes a copy in their department's Programs Action Plan.
- Departments should award department certificates to units that have 100% of their membership complete the survey.

HOW TO CONDUCT A UNIT MEETING

Committee:

Leadership

Contact Information for Questions:

Leadership@ALAforVeterans.org

The manner in which a unit meeting is conducted has a great bearing on its success or failure. Unless a meeting is well planned, intelligently conducted, and subjects are presented and discussed interestingly, members cannot be expected to be faithful in attendance. Routine business should be transacted in an efficient manner, yet the opportunity should be presented for active participation of members in the program. It is most important that unit elections and all unit business be conducted in accordance with unit bylaws, the current edition of “Roberts Rules of Order, Newly Revised,” and department and national constitution and bylaws. All unit presidents must remember to be impartial while presiding and not participate in discussion. The majority vote rules, but the minority has the right to be heard. Committee members and officers may transact detailed business and should only bring important matters before the unit for decision. Special monthly activities should be stressed, and district and department officers, as well as local speakers, should be asked to add interest to the programs. Variety should be introduced in music and entertainment.

The President as Presiding Officer

- Calls the meeting to order at the designated time and, if a quorum is present, proceeds with necessary business.
- Preserves order throughout the meeting.
- Follows the accepted order of business.
- Refers to herself as “the Chair.”
- Decides parliamentary questions. The president states the motion clearly after it has been seconded and before allowing discussion.
- Takes no part in any discussion while presiding; refrains from expressing a personal opinion on questions before the house; avoids all personal bias when giving information to the organization.
- Calls upon the vice president to preside if she wishes to speak on a motion or leave the chair. Remains out of chair until the vote on the pending motion is taken.
- May vote according to local bylaws.
- Recognizes a member who has not spoken previously on the question in preference to one who has spoken.

Leadership

Suggested Order of Business

While this suggested order of business for unit meetings includes items that will not be used at every meeting throughout the year, this may be of some assistance to presidents of new units and to others who are not entirely familiar with the business to be transacted. The order should be modified to fit the circumstances of the particular occasion.

1. Call to Order
2. Advancement of Colors (optional); Salute to the colors if colors are not advanced
3. Prayer
4. Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag
5. National Anthem or other patriotic song
6. Preamble to the Constitution of the American Legion Auxiliary
7. Roll call of officers
8. Reading and approval of minutes of previous meeting
9. Treasurer's Financial Report
10. Initiation of candidates (quarterly, biannually, or annually, as is the unit custom)
11. Reports of: president, secretary, unit officers, executive committee, Membership committee, standing committees, special committees
12. Reading of communications, including those from national, department and district officers
13. Unfinished business
14. New business
15. Election and installation of officers
16. Announcements
17. Program - educational and entertaining (optional)
18. Adjournment of business meeting
19. Closing prayer
20. Retirement of Colors (optional). The American flag and the banner of the American Legion Auxiliary in miniature and in a small stand should not be used for the advancement or retirement of colors, as the stand of colors was not intended to be used for this purpose.

Unit Meeting Terminology

Call to Order: The presiding officer first calls the meeting to order.

Reading of the Minutes: The president asks the secretary to read the minutes of the previous regular meeting. If special meetings have been held, these minutes should be acted upon after the regular ones. The presiding officer asks for any corrections or additions to the minutes, she then declares the minutes "approved as read" or "approved as corrected" if any corrections have been made. The minutes can also be distributed ahead of time and adopted without a full reading.

Statement of the Treasurer: After the reading of the report by the treasurer, the report is entered into the minutes and filed for audit. At the annual meeting the annual report is read, and the auditor's report is read. The report of the auditor including the treasurer's report is accepted.

Reading of Communications: The secretary reads all communications from the department and national headquarters, local organization notices and matters of general interest. Any action, which may arise from the reading, is deferred until unfinished business or new business is considered.

Unfinished Business: Any business postponed from the previous meeting or any matter introduced at the meeting on which action of the unit was deferred is unfinished business. The secretary from the minutes of the last meeting prepares a list of such unfinished business for the presiding officer. Only when the unfinished business has been disposed of may new business be brought forward, unless the regular order of business has been modified by vote of the members present.

New Business: Any business brought forward for the first time.

Announcements: The date of the next meeting or special event is announced. If a social hour is to follow, this should be announced at this time.

Program: The president asks the program chairman to take charge.

Closing Prayer: The president asks the chaplain to offer the closing prayer.

Charge: The president states, "Till we meet again let us remember that our obligation to our country can be fulfilled only by the faithful performance of all duties of citizenship. Let service to the community, state and nation be ever a main objective of the American Legion Auxiliary and its members. Let us ever be watchful of our organization and ourselves, that nothing shall swerve us from the path of Justice, Freedom, Loyalty and Democracy."

Adjournment: The president states, "If there is no further business to come before this meeting, the meeting is adjourned."

Retirement of the Colors: The color bearers will retire the Colors (Optional). If colors are not retired the president should say, "Colors in place, hand salute."

HOW TO LEAD A SMALL UNIT

Committee:

Leadership

Contact Information for Questions:

Leadership@ALAforVeterans.org

"History, although sometimes made up of the few acts of the great, is more often shaped by the many acts of the small." – Mark Twain

Step-by-Step Instructions:

- Avoid the "burnout" syndrome. Ask members to buy into a "one" concept: mentor one member, write one article for the unit newsletter, volunteer to be a greeter at one meeting or make reminder meeting calls to members for one meeting. By not overwhelming members with large projects, they will have the opportunity to adjust to learning and helping build their unit. If an experience is enjoyable, members will be more likely to look forward to helping more.
- Develop a plan to continually develop new leadership within your unit. As members are selected to chair committees, mentor them. Offer help when needed. Be prepared to provide support when asked or assign another mentor for support. Provide training sessions. Consider that you may have seasoned unit members capable and available for help with the training. Also, other community leaders may be willing to provide leadership training.
- Communicate with members. Find those who may wish to help contact members via phone/email or personal contact for such activities as meetings and program participation. Utilize local media. Foster good relations with local newspapers, TV and radio. Issue news releases. Publish the meeting schedule at the beginning of the year in your unit newsletter, and write "TBA" (To Be Announced) for those programs still tentative. Invite a member familiar with social networking to set up and monitor an account for the unit.
- Work in groups of like-minded programs, rather than each program individually. Some units have said it is hard to work all programs when they have few active members. The grouping system is a way to simplify the programs so you need no more than five program chairmen instead of 15 or more program chairmen. Grouping allows for more combined and efficient efforts within a unit. For examples: Juniors, Education, Children & Youth, and ALA Girls State/Nation can be grouped into one "youth" program grouping.
- You are not expected to complete all action steps in the Programs Action Plan; just pick a few that fit your unit well. If unit members enjoy their work, it will create an inviting atmosphere, and others who care about veterans will want to join in.

- Consider implementing quality programs to help invigorate meetings. Survey the interests of the membership when considering topics - a great way to reinforce information about Auxiliary programs.
- Be positive! Unit leaders have an obligation to minimize criticism and maximize positive feedback. A small unit needs and deserves frequent kudos for each of its successes.

HOW TO GROW LEADERSHIP CAPACITY, NURTURING A CULTURE OF GOODWILL

Committee:

Leadership

Contact Information for Questions:

Leadership@ALAforVeterans.org

“The growth and development of people is the highest calling of leadership.”

If we fail in our efforts to cultivate leadership ability, our leadership will deteriorate and ultimately disappear. So where do we begin?

Build confidence in those you lead

- Help people learn and develop. To increase members’ confidence, you should encourage them to utilize the Auxiliary Basics course (www.ALAforVeterans.org) and the ALA Leadership Academy; and to attend ALA Mission Training or conferences held in their departments.
- A great way to build up members’ competence—and thereby their confidence—is to delegate specific tasks that will help them grow in an area they’re interested in. Just be careful that you don’t delegate too soon or too quickly. Your job is to help members set reachable goals and, if necessary, to break difficult tasks into smaller, more manageable steps.
- Focus on member’s strengths. Their confidence (and motivation) will generally grow when they’re given the chance to put their skills or expertise into practice.
- Be supportive. One of the most fundamental ways to boost people’s confidence is to actively support them and build them up emotionally. When you get to know people on a more personal level (e.g., what motivates them; what really matters to them) you’ll intuitively know how to best support them.

Treat all members with dignity and respect

- Treat everyone with respect. Each of us has a direct impact on developing future leaders by setting an example for others to emulate.
- Actively praise a member and provide positive feedback when someone does something well. We all like to feel appreciated and it takes so little to say, “Thanks, that was an awesome job you did!”
- Build members up and let them know that it’s OK to make mistakes. When you remove the fear of failure, people will be more likely to take good risks.

Challenge them

- Including others in projects or programs helps build emotional and creative capacity.

- Leaders should inspire, challenge, enable and encourage members. They should mobilize others toward transforming our values into action, our vision into reality, and potential obstacles into innovations.
- Empower members.
- Empowerment begins by painting the big-picture for those you lead. Empowerment also is all about trust.
- Leaders should give opportunities to those they lead, and then hold them accountable.
- Share with them past insecurities or challenges you faced when you first assumed a leadership role. Your openness will only make them feel more confident and inspired by your example.
- Acknowledge past mistakes. People want to work with someone who is human.

Listen and listen more

- When building a member's confidence, listening to them is crucial. Allow them to communicate openly and honestly about their strengths, weakness, fears, accomplishments, and ultimate goals.
- Actively listen to what others have to say before giving your viewpoint. Demonstrate, by your actions, that their thoughts and ideas are important to you. Remember your reaction and body language is an important indicator that you are truly listening.

Connect with your members

- Connection doesn't happen unless you invest the time to learn about someone's unique personality, perspective and motivations. Ask questions of members to uncover their interests, while observing them in action to find out their leadership strengths and potential.
- Demonstrate your commitment to their success by consistently adding value to them, providing ongoing encouragement, and making yourself available.

Be a model they can emulate

- Effective leaders should seize every opportunity to express, by their own example, their deep commitment to our organization. Leading by example makes our vision and our values tangible.
- Effective leaders do what they say they will. This builds credibility and trust among members, who realize that their leaders' promises are not empty words.
- Effective leaders are able to regroup and determine a new course when faced with adversity or an unexpected obstacle. They understand that needs and goals change over time and they must adapt to meet them.
- Leaders take initiative and responsibility for their actions.

"It takes a village to raise a child," is a popular African proverb. By the same token, it takes an organization to raise a leader. Developing leadership is a serious endeavor, but it's worth the time and effort because leaders are necessary for our organization to thrive into the future.

2017-2022 American Legion Auxiliary Programs Action Plan

Membership

The role of the national Membership Committee is to encourage and support the nationwide effort to attract and retain a diverse, active membership and establish new units to ensure the future of the American Legion Auxiliary. Members enable us to carry out our mission to assist veterans, military, and their families.

What Can You Do?

1. Enhance member experience

Ideas:

Units and Departments

- Retain all current members
 - What is a member in good standing?
 - A member who is current with annual dues is a member in good standing. A member failing to pay annual dues by January 31 of the current membership year, shall be classed as delinquent and shall be suspended from all membership privileges.
 - What is the value of a volunteer's time?
 - To enhance a member's volunteer contributions, offer ideas and opportunities in which members can support and deliver the Auxiliary's mission.
 - Examples for members: Volunteer at a VA Medical Center serving as veterans' escorts to appointments, participate in a stand down to provide necessities for homeless veterans, mentor military children with the big brother/big sister concept.
 - Recognize all members for any and all contributions — volunteering, serving as a chairman or officer, preparing food, organizing events, being a mentor to new members, contacting other members to renew, being a good example of Service Not Self, etc.
- Share member tools.
 - Help members set up a user profile on the national website, www.ALAforVeterans.org, so that they can access the "Members Only" section and take advantage of all the tips and tools available.
 - Inform members of member benefits and discounts available.
- Rid units/departments of member discrimination. (Goal 1 & 2)
- Ensure a positive experience for all members.
- Be welcoming, kind and respectful to members of all ages and backgrounds.
 - Ask for new ideas and be open to them. Encourage personal contact between members of the unit. Demonstrate Service Not Self in all activities and interactions with others. Realize that not all members will attend meetings, and be respectful of their choice.
- Create meaningful participation.

- Hold regular information sessions to refresh members on ALA programs.
- Ask members to participate in programs they are passionate about.
- Establish a membership committee or team to support efforts throughout the department.
 - Deploy active and consistent communication with units and districts/counties. Share contact information of committee/team with units.
 - Use membership tools, available at www.ALAforVeterans.org, and ensure all units have access to all membership resources.
 - Utilize your committee/team by giving them an assignment to make your program a success.

2. Reach out to former and expired members.

Ideas:

Units and Departments

- Identify former and expired members: Use the ALAMIS member database, or contact your department headquarters, to obtain a former member report, expired member report and/or a current year unpaid dues roster.
- Reach out to former/expired members: Set up a committee to establish a phone bank of members who will call former members. Meet periodically to make calls – monthly, quarterly, semi-annually. Develop a script to identify reasons for not renewing and what would cause the former member to consider rejoining. A sample phone script is included in the “How to hold a revitalization event or participate in TAL District Revitalizations” how to sheet. Send follow-up letters to those contacted, thanking them for taking the time to talk with you. Send letters to those you were unable to reach (see “How to hold a revitalization event or participate in TAL District Revitalizations” for a sample letter to former members).
- Share former members’ feedback with the unit; determine what the unit might need to do differently to retain all members.

3. Attract new members.

Ideas:

Units and Departments

- Ensure a positive new-member experience.
 - Personally contact a new member shortly after she joins.
 - Provide a personalized welcome letter from the unit president or membership chairman. Also send a New Member Kit, available at www.ALAforVeterans.org, and personalize it for your unit and department. See “Suggested Additions to New Member Kit” to help create a complete new member packet.
 - Find out how a new member wants to be involved and which volunteer activities might best suit her skills and interests. Utilize the interest form provided in the Leadership Programs Action Plan.
 - Offer a variety of volunteer opportunities in which new members can participate, at times convenient to them, to support and deliver the Auxiliary’s mission. See the ALA Service Not Self Volunteer Toolbox at www.ALAforVeterans.org for tips, ideas and strategies on how to be a better volunteer.
 - Be welcoming, kind and respectful to persons of all ages and backgrounds.

- Do not expect all new members to attend regular meetings; be grateful for whatever way she wants to participate, even if only to pay her dues.
- Increase the ALA's visibility in the community.
- Increase community involvement by using ALA programs that encourage responsible, active citizenship supporting our military servicemembers and their families.
- Engage other community-based organizations in ALA projects such as welcome-home/deployment events, support of military families and providing services that may include plumbing, carpentry, childcare, etc., for families of those deployed.
- Volunteer at schools, giving flag demonstrations and serving as mentors, with a special emphasis on military children and the issues they face with deployments and transfers. Contact JROTC leaders to assist with projects.
- Encourage Junior members to recruit their eligible friends and relatives.
- Identify recruitment target groups such as women veterans, military families, and relatives of American Legion members, ALA Girls State alumnae and local colleges.
- Ensure the ALA is appealing to new members.
- Exhibit Service Not Self in all activities and interaction with others.
- Create a significant membership experience for Junior members. Encourage Junior members to attend the senior meeting to share their vision of the unit. Encourage struggling units to elect Junior members to positions that don't incur significant liability risks. Examples include: Chaplain, Sgt.-At-Arms, and Historian.

4. Understand and Respect Member Rights

Units

- Membership dues
 - Members can pay dues in one of the following ways:
 - Directly to the appropriate member in their unit
 - Via the renewal notice sent by National Headquarters
 - Via www.ALAforVeterans.org
 - Effective with the 2016 membership year, members have the option to renew their dues online.
 - Membership cannot be withheld from a member who chooses to pay her dues online.
 - Once a member has paid her current year's dues, regardless of payment method, she is a member in good standing and entitled to all rights and privileges of membership.
 - Units have a legal and fiduciary responsibility to process a member's dues (new or renewal) in a timely manner. Failure to do so is a violation of the members' rights and due process. Dues received by the unit should be transmitted to your department once a month (minimum).
- Membership cards
 - Membership cards are provided by the national organization and shipped to departments to distribute to their units.
 - Units must provide to members their membership card as soon as payment is received.
 - Units must provide membership cards to members who renew online as soon as the unit becomes aware that the member has paid – either by member providing their emailed receipt, notification from their department, or, for units having ALAMIS access, via the “Unit Dues Paid Online” report which is available 24/7.

Departments

- Membership Dues
 - Departments have a legal and fiduciary responsibility to process a member’s dues (new or renewal) in a timely manner; failure to do so is a violation of the members’ rights and due process.
- Membership cards
 - Membership cards cannot be withheld from units for any purpose. Distribute membership cards and rosters to units in a timely manner so they can be promptly provided to members upon payment.
- American Legion Auxiliary Management Information System (ALAMIS)
 - Encourage units to sign up for access to ALAMIS. Units having access to ALAMIS can minimize work for the department by entering new members as pending members, update their member’s profile, run reports showing who has and has not paid dues, and can pull the “Unit Dues Paid Online” report which means that units can promptly provide membership cards to members who pay dues on-line.

Membership Reporting*

Mid-Year Reports

Mid-Year reports reflect the program work of units in the department, and are intended as an opportunity for mid-year correction. Each department Membership chairman is required to submit a narrative report to the division Membership chairman, plus copy the national Membership chairman.

As part of your narrative report, please include answers to the following questions:

- How is your department encouraging renewals? Provide three examples.
- Did working any of the ALA programs help to generate new members? (Example: Teaching flag etiquette at a school resulted in two teachers joining the ALA.)
- Have any of your units implemented new/innovative ideas or practices to increase renewals and/or sign up new members? If so, what are they?

Year-End Reports

Annual reports reflect the program work of units in the department, and may result in a national award for participants if award requirements are met. Each department Membership chairman is required to submit a narrative report to the division Membership chairman, plus copy the national Membership chairman. Members and units should follow their department’s protocol and deadlines.

As part of your narrative report, please include answers to the following questions:

- As the department Membership chairman, how have you disseminated information to your units?
- Did your department have any department membership awards (not including any national membership awards)?
- Did having these membership awards help to retain or increase membership?
- What did you do to encourage membership?
- What were your successes throughout the year?
- What were some of your hurdles/difficulties faced during this year?

For deadlines and contact information, please consult the Annual Supplement to the 2017-2022 Programs Action Plan or visit the Membership Committee page on the national website, www.ALAforVeterans.org.*

HOW TO CREATE A NEW MEMBER PACKET

Committee:

Membership

Contact Information for Questions:

membership@ALAforVeterans.org

Step-by-Step Instructions:

- Download the New Member Kit available on the national website:

- Personalize the New Member Kit with additions that are unique to your unit.
Additions could include:
 - Welcome letter from your unit president

Make sure the budget is flexible to allow the unit to take advantage of unexpected opportunities. Identify the sources of the funds and their planned uses.
 - Unit roster – A list of all of the current members, as well as a list of past officers, district, department and national information, and even local contact information for the press and city officials.
 - Latest newsletter (if applicable)
 - Calendar of events including monthly meetings

HOW TO HOLD A REVITALIZATION EVENT OR PARTICIPATE IN A TAL DISTRICT REVITALIZATION

Committee:

Membership

Contact Information for Questions:

membership@ALAforVeterans.org

Step-by-Step Instructions:

Revitalization is about identifying new and current members with new ideas that breathe life into units that are declining in membership and mission outreach. Revitalization is also about providing mentors for struggling units, providing training for new members and finding leaders to replace longtime chairmen and officers. More importantly, revitalization is about finding, exploring and trying new ways for all members to become more engaged in meaningful opportunities for mission outreach. Outlined below are three revitalization events that your unit may want to consider:

1. Hold an open house for your unit.

- Establish a time and place for your open house.
- Promote your open house by sending flyers/pamphlets/postcards/brochures to your units' current and former members. Work with your American Legion post to obtain a roster of their membership so you can send information to their households.
- Notify your local newspaper of the event and post flyers within your community. Newsletter and news release templates are available at <https://www.ALAforVeterans.org/Resources/Marketing---Promotional-Materials/>
- During the event, have several tables set up and manned by unit members. Tables to include are:
 - Membership: Members can renew/rejoin or sign up as a new member. Make sure to have plenty of membership applications, American Legion Auxiliary At-A-Glance brochures and Legion Family brochures.
 - Program tables: Set up tables for each program in which the unit participates. Include information regarding each program and include pictures of the units' activities if possible.
 - Member benefits: Have a unit member available to answer any questions and highlight all of the member benefits. Display copies of Auxiliary magazine and make sure to have plenty of copies of the member benefits flyers and the Auxiliary Emergency Fund brochure.
 - ALA national website: Enlist a member to demonstrate how to navigate the ALA national website and assist members in creating a login and/or paying their dues online.
- Keep a list of those attending the event. Don't forget to follow up afterwards to thank them for coming and to notify them of upcoming unit events.

2. Hold a phone tree night

- Establish a time and place for your phone tree night.
- Obtain a list of expired and former members. If the unit currently has access to ALAMIS they can pull this report themselves or you can request a report from your department.
- Enlist the assistance of unit members to make phone calls to expired and/or former members. See the sample phone script at the end of this document.
- Have members offer to drive and pick up dues from members.
- Keep a list of members who renew. Follow up to thank them for their membership and to keep them informed of unit activities.

3. Participate in a TAL District Revitalization

• Preparing for a TAL District Revitalization

- Departments: Contact National Headquarters for a schedule of TAL visit(s) to your state. Assist affected units prepare for revitalization events.
- Units: Contact your department headquarters to see if/when a TAL district revitalization event will be scheduled in an area near you.
 - Identify a revitalization coordinator(s) or point of contact(s) to organize the unit revitalization
 - Solicit ALA members to participate. Contact other units within your district to see if they would like to participate. You may wish to create two groups from your volunteers: One group to stay at the location and make phone calls to former/expired/department headquarters unit members (see attached sample script) and to be available to speak with any walk-ins. Have a display table showing Auxiliary programs. The second group will ride along with TAL teams who are canvassing neighborhoods knocking on doors to make contact with expired/former TAL members and inviting them to rejoin.

Note: ALA members that go door knocking with TAL members may not always have an opportunity to ask each homeowner about women in the home who might be interested in the ALA. TAL members have a short amount of time when talking to someone. If no opportunity is presented to discuss the ALA, politely ask if the homeowner would like an ALA brochure to pass on.

- Make arrangements with the hosting post to have a section of tables and chairs for your needs. Create signs for your table(s).
- Make arrangements to have ALA information (brochures, applications, etc.) for walk-ins. Have clipboards and writing utensils for both those who stay on site and those who go out knocking on doors with TAL members.
- Arrange for drinks and food/snacks to be available for all of the participating volunteers.

• Publicity

- Publicize the dates, times and information of the revitalization event in post and/or unit newsletters two months prior to the event so that members are aware that TAL and the ALA will be out in their community. This can also be used as a way to solicit volunteers for the event.

- Two weeks prior to the event obtain newspaper coverage. Display posters/flyers in the area (community bulletin board, grocery stores, church bulletin board, etc.). Let the community know that there will be ALA members available throughout the day at the location of the event to answer questions and talk to people if they are interested in joining and/or rejoining the ALA.
- Unit and Post Rosters
 - Obtain a membership roster for local units in the area to be covered as well as the department headquarters unit to identify any of those members that live in the area. Rosters for your individual unit can be pulled from ALAMIS. If your unit does not have access to ALAMIS, you can request a membership roster for local units from your department. Reports that show members who are paid and not paid for the current membership year are also available.
 - Ask the local post if they can provide a TAL membership roster with mailing addresses. This can be used to send mailings to Legionnaires to invite their eligible family members to join the ALA.
- Letters
 - Letters/invitations to the event can be sent to current unit and post members who may have family members who are eligible to join the ALA, members of the department headquarters unit in the local area who you may wish to invite to transfer to a local unit, and members who have not yet renewed or that you are asking to rejoin the unit.
 - See sample letters included in this document that can be used to contact current unit members, post members from TAL commander and unit president, and to past Auxiliary members from unit president.
 - Make your own mailing labels or secure mailing labels from department (check with your department to see if this option is available).
 - Letters should be mailed two-three weeks in advance of the revitalization event. This allows time for letters with wrong addresses to be returned. Keep track of any returned mail and update your records that the address currently on file is inaccurate. If the bad address belongs to a member of the ALA (current or former), notify your department headquarters so that they can update that member's record. If your unit currently has access to ALAMIS, you can update the records yourself.
- Brochures
 - From your department headquarters, order the "American Legion Auxiliary At-A-Glance" brochure and in the space provided on the back, place a label with the name, address and phone number of a contact person. Also include contact information for other participating units.
 - Obtain copies of the "ALA Member Benefits" flyer, fold and insert in the brochure. The Member Benefits flyer can be printed off the national website (found in the "Member's Only" section of the website under "Member Benefits") or ordered from your department.
- Day of TAL Revitalization Event
 - Meet at the designated time and event location. Advise participants to bring cell phone chargers for both wall and car.
 - Members who go out door knocking with TAL members: Take several of the "American Legion Auxiliary At-A-Glance" brochures that are stuffed with the Member Benefits flyer and the local unit's contact information to hand out or leave on doors.

NOTE: Reminders when visiting homes:

- Wear appropriate ALA-branded clothing; make a good first impression. Smile!
- Wear visible name tag with Auxiliary emblem on it if possible.
- Keep a list of the names and addresses where ALA information was distributed. Each TAL team will have their list of homes to visit. Ask (in advance of the event date) if the Auxiliary member may have a copy to use during the door knocking session.
- Members who stay at the event location should set up a table/display of ALA program pamphlets/brochures and membership applications for any walk-ins.
- Follow-Up
 - Have a plan for who will follow up at a later date and contact anyone who was a walk-in (and those homes that you handed out ALA information to) and do it SOON after the event! Do not lose the momentum and fresh contacts you just made.
 - Consider writing an article for the unit/post/dept newsletter to “celebrate” the outcome of the event. Include helpful hints that made your event a success and state statistics for the number of new or renewed members. Also thank all of those members who participated and gave of their time.

HOW TO MAKE A PERSONAL CONNECTION TO GET MEMBERS TO RENEW

Committee:
Membership

Contact Information for Questions:
membership@ALAforVeterans.org

Step-by-Step Instructions:

Too often the only contact a member receives is her Dues Renewal Notice sent by the national headquarters office. Personal connection is necessary to help members become engaged in the American Legion Auxiliary. Below are samples for how units can reach out and make a personal connection with their members and ask them to renew their membership:

- Personal phone call – Remind members why they joined the American Legion Auxiliary. Share the ways your unit has made a difference in the lives of veterans in your community, state and country. Encourage them to become a part of activities. Transportation may be an issue, so if your unit members can offer to provide a ride, this may be the key to increasing involvement. Offer to pick up their dues at a scheduled time.
- Personal letter – Send letters out to all of your members at the beginning of the Auxiliary year. Outline the events on a calendar for all of the exciting things your unit is planning throughout the year and let members know that their membership is important to the mission of the organization. See sample letter.
- Renewal Open House – Host an event at the beginning of the year where members can come renew their dues and mingle with other members. Encourage them to bring other family members along. These family members may be eligible for membership, but if not, remind them they are welcome to attend activities and that you do welcome their help in advancing the mission of the American Legion Auxiliary. Combine this event with your Legion family. It is a win-win for everyone.
- Plan a Member Day of Recognition. Everyone needs a pat on the back or a “way to go.” At your meetings, you can share information about a member’s family history with the Auxiliary, what she is doing to advance the mission of the Auxiliary, her community service work, etc. Then share this information with your division Membership chairman so we can begin to share her accomplishments with the entire American Legion Auxiliary membership.
- Share your own personal experience as a member. Let your members know there will be ups and downs, but to always keep their eye on the big picture – the mission of the Auxiliary – not just personal rewards.

2017-2022 American Legion Auxiliary Programs Action Plan

Past Presidents Parley

The purpose of the Past Presidents Parley committee is to utilize the experience and knowledge of past Auxiliary leaders for training and encouragement of future Auxiliary leaders. Through the Past Presidents Parley committee, women who have served as unit, department, and national presidents have an opportunity to continue in active service to the Auxiliary, helping ensure strong future leadership for the organization. The Past Presidents Parley also recognizes and honors outstanding unit members through the Unit Member of the Year Award and women veterans through the Salute to Servicewomen Award.

Committee Contact Information

pastpresidentsparley@ALAforVeterans.org

What can you do?

1. Promote mentoring opportunities of unit members.

As former leaders, past presidents at all levels are encouraged to continue their support to the organization by accepting responsibility to contribute their experience, knowledge and wisdom. As ambassadors for the organization, there is much information to share in achieving a stronger organization, at each level, by sustaining growth through positive actions.

Ideas:

Unit

- Form a unit Past Presidents Parley
- Encourage past presidents to continue providing support through the process of sharing 'best practices' with members.

Department

- Encourage past presidents at all levels to continue their support of the organization.
- Encourage past presidents to embrace the concept that their knowledge and wisdom, as a past leader, can make a difference in the development and mentoring of future leaders, and present and future members.
- As past leaders, join the group as ambassadors for the organization knowing there is much information to share to make each level of the organization stronger and maintain its growth with positive actions.

2. Promote and submit nominations for the Unit Member of the Year Award.

This award recognizes the contributions made by a valued unit member. Select one member to compete for department recognition by researching the criteria within your department and making a nomination; honor her within your department. Also honor the member in her unit for significant contributions made to the unit. Encourage other units to participate. All Unit Members of the Year are recognized at National Convention. Committee contact: national committee member, consult the Annual Supplement to the Programs Action Plan for contact information.

Ideas:Unit

- Select one member to compete for the department Unit Member of the Year award by researching the criteria within your department and personally making a nomination.
- Honor her within the unit.

Department

- Promote the Unit Member of the Year Award to all units and members. This is a very special award that recognizes the contributions made by a valued unit member who never held an office higher than unit president. It celebrates and recognizes those members who quietly work the mission of the American Legion Auxiliary.
 - Follow the application criteria below, establish entry dates for your department, and establish a committee to judge the award entries and select the winning entry from your department.
- Plan to recognize the winner at your department convention.
- Raise funds to provide the winner from your department a means to attend the ALA Woman of the Year Luncheon held annually at the national convention. Special recognition at the luncheon is bestowed on all winners in attendance.

3. Promote and submit nominations for the Salute to Servicewomen Award.

The Past Presidents Parley will continue to recognize the military service of female personnel, including the National Guard and Reserve components, representing each branch of service at the national convention. Committee contact: national chairman, consult the Annual Supplement to the Programs Action Plan for contact information.

Ideas:Unit

- Seek candidates to nominate for the Salute to Servicewomen Award. Assist in the application process.
- Honor all nominees at a unit function.

Department

- Encourage units and members to seek deserving women to apply for this award.
- Assist in the application process.
- Recognize all award entries at a department function.

Past Presidents Parley Reporting*

An annual report is not required; however, an annual summary and a mid-year progress report are suggested as tools to gauge the direction and effectiveness of department activities. Both narratives should be forwarded to the national chairman.

For deadlines and contact information, please consult the Annual Supplement to the 2017-2022 Programs Action Plan or visit the Past Presidents Parley Committee page on the national website, www.ALAforVeterans.org.*

HOW TO ESTABLISH A PAST PRESIDENTS PARLEY IN YOUR DEPARTMENT

Committee:

Past Presidents Parley

Contact Information for Questions:

pastpresidentsparley@ALAforVeterans.org

Establish a Past Presidents Parley in your department

- Departments are encouraged to establish a Past Presidents Parley (PPP) consisting of their past department presidents. These groups can continue their support of the organization by using their experience, knowledge and wisdom to be goodwill ambassadors and to strengthen our organization and help maintain its growth.
- PPPs can play an important part in the mentoring of current members to develop knowledgeable leadership within the department. They can support and assist in a recruitment effort for new members.
- They are encouraged to select a mission-outreach project of interest and support the program with time and/or financial contributions. They may choose to have a courtesy fund and chairman to remember past presidents when the need arises.
- They should make themselves available to current officers as well as potential candidates for office. Their guidance and constructive feedback should help the department maintain continuity and good cooperation.
- This group could hold a luncheon during department meetings to share current department news. They may choose to donate or raise funds for ex-servicewomen and PPP nurses scholarships. They may discuss making specific donations or how they could assist with issues within their department to help create a positive result. A discussion could be held about ideas for proposing a resolution to help clarify a questionable Constitution & Bylaws article. They may decide to take a leadership role regarding a proposal from the national organization. Some members of the Parley may be serving at the national level.
- They could invite the current department president and any national guest who may be in attendance at their meeting.
- Your knowledge can be invaluable on the department's Finance Committee, as PPP chairman, or as parliamentarian, if appointed.
- Continue to be involved: You are a valuable department member.

HOW TO HOST A NATIONAL-LEVEL VISITOR AT YOUR DEPARTMENT

Committee:

Past Presidents Parley

Contact Information for Questions:

pastpresidentparley@ALAforVeterans.org

Suggestions for hosting a national-level visitor at your department

- Make sure all pre-visit forms are filled out completely and correctly. The national president's form requests detailed information regarding events, expectations for speaking obligations, appropriate attire, etc. Visitors should be informed of any changes made to the information submitted on the pre-visit forms.
- Identify a distinguished guest committee that will be responsible for all activities during the visit. This committee should be familiar with the area and will represent your organization in a professional manner. Make the committee members aware of the dress code for the visit. Have them develop a plan that assigns individual responsibilities. If you have a national chairman, national officer or Past National President in your department, it is suggested she be on this committee.
- If the guest is flying into the area, designate who will be at the airport at the scheduled time of arrival. The visit begins at the airport. Be on time and either at the gate or at the luggage area to make your guest feel welcome. Assist with luggage at every location. Transport her in a clean vehicle that has a large luggage storage area. Many times, the guest has been traveling for several days and has multiple suitcases. Ask if she has eaten or would like to stop at a suitable restaurant prior to escorting her to the final destination.
- If possible, pick up the key to your guest's room before her arrival. Check the room to make sure everything is prepared for her visit. You may choose to place a small gift, bottled water or small snacks in the room. When you arrive at the location where your guest will be staying, escort her immediately to her room. Allow the guest some time to unpack, check her messages and relax before the first scheduled event.
- She should be escorted at all times. Ask if she prefers breakfast in her room or in the dining room and what time she would like to retire to her room.
- Facilitating a reception or social activity is an effective way of enabling the national-level visitor to meet as many members as possible.
- The department president will introduce the guest. When addressing an audience, she should speak last. In a processional, the national president would be the last to be introduced and the last to be seated or step onto the platform.
- A gift list of items given to the visitor is always appreciated. Send one list with the gifts mailed to her home and send a copy to National Headquarters. Prior to the day of departure, ask the visitor what time she would like to arrive at the airport. Many guests prefer to be checked in and waiting at their departure gate one hour prior to boarding the plane. Please plan departure day events accordingly.

HOW TO MENTOR A NEW MEMBER

Committee:

Past Presidents Parley

Contact Information for Questions:

pastpresidentsparley@ALAforVeterans.org

Unit Past President Parley Responsibilities

- Offer to escort a new member to your meeting.
- Introduce her to the president as well as other members in attendance. Ask her to share a little about herself. The information could be helpful in determining in which committee she may have the greatest interest. Have each attendee introduce herself.
- As each program report is given, request that the chairman explain the purpose of the program and how the unit supports it. Explain the duties of the officers, the chairmen and the committee members.
- Help maintain a positive attitude and assist in avoiding controversy during the meeting. Interject some occasional humor to help make the meeting fun.
- A prospective member is more likely to join if she feels she is joining an organization that is fun and whose activities support the community. All members will be more willing to attend meetings and assist with activities if the meetings are short and interesting. Remind the members to try new ideas without criticism if they fail. Suggest trying something else. Help keep the meeting moving toward a positive conclusion.
- Evaluate your new member's capabilities. If you feel she is ready to participate, ask her which of the programs holds her greatest interest. Discourage naming a new member as an officer or a chairman, but instead suggest she be given the opportunity of working on a committee with an experienced chairman. Let her know you are willing to mentor her and assist by answering her questions. Remember to praise her efforts.
- Past presidents should advise when asked, but preferably not serve as a chairman. Chairmanships should be held by other members so they may learn the programs and become good unit leaders who may develop an interest in moving into district, county or department positions.
- As a past president, you may wish to promote the nomination of a Unit Member of the Year. You may take the lead in recommending servicewomen to submit for an award. Develop a fundraising activity for donations to the nursing scholarship program.
- Continue to support through your ongoing leadership!

HOW TO WRITE A NEWS RELEASE

Committee:

Public Relations

Contact information for questions:

publicrelations@ALAforVeterans.org

How to write a news release:

- Gather correct and pertinent information.
- Prepare a news release with the Who (who is invited and who is the sponsor), What (what is the ALA information/event/program), When (day, date, time), Where (location, street address, city), Why (provides a reason the event is being held) and How (other special information a member or the general public would need to know in order to participate in this event). Templates are available at www.ALAforVeterans.org.

- The inverted pyramid (shown above) is a common method for writing news articles and releases. It can be thought of as a simple upside-down triangle. The widest part at the top represents the most important information, and it tapers down in order of diminishing importance. Who, What, When, Where, Why and How should all be included in the opening paragraph or two. This format is valued because readers can leave the story at any point and understand it, even if they don't have all of the details. By placing less important information at the end of the story, it can be removed so the article can fit a fixed size, or it can be “cut from the bottom.”
- Include contact information: a name, phone number and email address.
- Provide deadline information if applicable.
- Distribute public relations information via resources available in your community—to newspapers, radio stations, TV stations, blogs; post to a website; display advertising posters on community boards, in city hall, grocery stores, VA hospitals; share information with other persons who may help your unit reach the target audience such as a veteran service officer, Family Readiness Group or National Guard armory personnel.
- With today’s technology, it is imperative that your information be shared electronically. Utilize Auxiliary websites, Facebook, Twitter, Google+, LinkedIn, and YouTube.
- Online public relations resources are available at www.ALAforVeterans.org.

HOW TO SET UP A DEPARTMENT OR UNIT WEBSITE

Committee:

Public Relations

Contact Information for Questions:

publicrelations@ALAforVeterans.org

1. Determine the purpose of the site – to attract new members, communicate with current ones, or both.
2. Decide on a domain name (YourSiteName.org) and hosting (service that connects your site to the Internet). You will probably have to pay a nominal fee for the domain name. You may be able to find a host for free.
3. Using the ALA Branding Guide (available at www.ALAforVeterans.org), design your website with a professional appearance.
4. Include general information about the American Legion Auxiliary.
5. Use the content suggestions located in the ALA Branding Guide.
6. Include at least one link to www.ALAforVeterans.org on your website.
7. When including information on your website from www.ALAforVeterans.org, include links to the information rather than posting it directly to your site. If information changes at the national level, the link will ensure your website visitors receive the latest information.
8. Update your website regularly. People visiting your website will keep checking it if the content is current and fresh.
9. Avoid including information on your website that contains internal language and acronyms that may confuse users. Examples include NEC, PNP, PDP.
10. Care should be exercised when linking to other websites. Information included on websites linked to external sites should be supportive of the Auxiliary's mission, message and values. Suggested links include www.ALAforVeterans.org, www.legion.org, and your department American Legion Auxiliary website.
11. Check your website regularly to ensure the links are working properly. Broken links will frustrate users, and they may stop checking your site.
12. Be sure to include contact information for your department or unit in an easy-to-find location on your site. Also include contact information for the webmaster.

What you should know:

Planning for our future

The Core Values of the Auxiliary and our Mission do not change; they endure. For the organization itself to endure, everything we do needs to be directed towards the five goals of the ALA's Centennial Strategic Plan: 5) With The American Legion, build brand loyalty; 4) Strengthen departments & units; 3) Develop leadership at all levels; 2) Create a culture of goodwill; and succeeding with these four goals we can: 1) Enhance membership strength.

These five goals, adopted by the National Executive Committee, depend on each other, and must all be done at all levels, so that we can become a thriving organization.

At times, Department Finance Committees often focus only on the current year budgeting process and neglect looking three to five years ahead. Each department is strongly advised to replicate this process of defining its own set of goals through a strategic plan. The department needs to measure where it is now and set goals, or benchmarks, for expenses and to broaden the sources of potential income streams. Therefore, at each of your finance meetings, the strategic plan and progress toward those annual and multi-year goals should be reviewed. Remember: This is normally a multi-year process, so members need to understand and be able to measure progress of the organization through reports of the Finance Committee.

Expense

At a minimum, the Key Financial Indicators should include the benchmarks expected by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and nonprofit watchdog organizations. There are three key expense benchmarks:

1. Program Services (expenditures related to the organization's primary mission and purpose): The target should be 65-75 percent.
2. Management and General Administrative (expenditures spent on managing the operations of the organization): The target should be 5-10 percent.
3. Fundraising (expenditures spent on raising additional funds for the organization's purpose and mission expenses – i.e., grants, planned giving, endowments, direct mail campaigns, etc.): The target should be 10-15 percent.

Potential donors expect that the majority of the funds collected by a nonprofit organization be designated to supporting the mission of the organization through its programs.

Revenue

On the revenue side, setting targets is more difficult because there are no specific industry benchmarks other than to have a variety of revenue streams that reduce your dependence on any one source. Since the American Legion Auxiliary is a membership organization, we rely on member dues to cover our expenses. By bringing in other resources that support the ALA mission either by donations to the ALA (ALA National Scholarship Fund and/or the Auxiliary Emergency Fund), donations to the American Legion Auxiliary Foundation (ALA Mission Endowment Fund and/or ALA Foundation Veteran Projects Fund), corporate sponsorships, special events, or bequests; we lower the dependence on dues and/or reserves alone to meet our obligations.

Reserves

The ability to build up financial reserves is vital for the future to ensure proper resources are available to maintain operations of the organization if necessary. The recommended amount of reserves/savings is 2.5 times the annual budget of the organization. So for example, an organization with a $100,000 budget would try to maintain $250,000 in reserves for emergencies and have a plan to replenish when withdrawals are made.

Financial Reporting

The Finance Committee needs to share with members who are the stakeholders of the organization and have a legal right to know how the organization is being managed and what results are being obtained. The Finance Committee makes recommendations to the governing body, and that body is responsible for the actual policy decisions. The Department Executive Committee (DEC) should receive clear, timely, and accurate information regarding the financial status of the organization at each of their meetings and at additional times as needed.

In partnership with NHQ staff and management, the committee ensures that all tax reporting is completed within appropriate time frames for federal, state, and local jurisdictions. Since 2008, the IRS began requiring small exempt organizations, many of which previously were not required to file tax returns, to submit an annual electronic report, known as a Form 990-N. This has been a mandate for every ALA department and unit. The Form 990-N, titled the Electronic Notice for Tax-Exempt Organizations Not Required to File Form 990 or 990-EZ (and also known as the e-Postcard) is required of charities whose annual gross receipts are $50,000 or less.

The Pension Protection Act of 2006 also requires the IRS to revoke the tax-exempt status of any organization that fails to meet its annual filing requirement for three consecutive years. This requirement applies also to small tax-exempt organizations that file the e-Postcard.

Audits

The Finance Committee is responsible for hiring a professional external auditing firm to conduct the annual audit unless an Audit Committee exists. If an Audit Committee exists, as it does at the National organization, it is responsible for hiring a professional external auditing firm to conduct the annual audit. This responsibility transfers to the Audit Committee once this committee establishment is adopted. This cannot be a staff or management function because:

1. Independent External Auditor must provide the audited financials to the governing body and report on staff/management activities.
2. Management needs to report on the auditor's activities.

While departments have a Finance Committee in place, it is important to remember that an Audit Committee has different responsibilities. While the Finance Committee reviews investment policies and monitors the funds of the organization on a regular basis, the Audit Committee of an organization provides independent oversight ensuring that the organization has appropriate governance policies and internal and financial reporting controls in place that mitigate the organization's exposure to financial reporting risks and other corporate-level risks.

In Summary

Please remember, the national Finance committee is here to assist departments. If you have questions, please feel free to contact one of the national Finance committee members or the ALA national controller.

HOW TO FINANCIALLY SUPPORT ALA MISSION-BASED PROGRAMS

Committee:

National Finance

Contact Information for Questions:

Finance@ALAforVeterans.org or your department Finance Committee chairman

Objective:

Provide support for the mission-based programs and activities of our national organization.

How to donate to the American Legion Auxiliary National organization and to the American Legion Auxiliary Foundation:

Once your annual unit budget has been approved, it is time to start supporting the mission-based programs and activities your unit has budgeted by completing the donation form and submitting donations directly to National Headquarters or via your department. Please make this form available to individual unit members, and explain the importance of donating to the national mission funds.

National Funds Supporting the ALA Mission:

Donations can be made to support the American Legion Auxiliary as follows:

A. ALA National Scholarship Fund

1. Children of Warriors National Presidents' Scholarship Fund: Supports the children of our nation's heroes — our veterans — through endowed gifts. These scholarships are awarded to 15 students annually who excel in academics and volunteer in their communities.
2. Spirit of Youth Scholarship Fund: Supports three separate scholarship opportunities. One area of opportunity is scholarships for five honorary American Legion Auxiliary national division Junior vice presidents; one area of opportunity is scholarships for participants in the American Legion Auxiliary Girls Nation program; and one area of opportunity is for Non-Traditional Student Scholarships supporting people who are part of the Legion Family pursuing a college degree later in life or allowing them to pick up where they left off when their studies were interrupted.

B. Auxiliary Emergency Fund: When a sudden financial crisis befalls an eligible Auxiliary member, the AEF may be able to provide temporary emergency assistance when no other source of help is available.

C. American Legion Auxiliary Foundation: As a 501(c)(3) public benefit corporation, the ALA Foundation provides ways for individuals and corporations to support the Auxiliary's charitable and educational outreach programs through endowed gifts, grants, and sponsorships that require donations go to a 501(c)(3). The ALA Foundation secures our legacy of service for future generations of veterans, military, and their families. The ALA Foundation supports the mission of the ALA and receives donations for:

1. ALA Mission Endowment Fund – a long-term fund where earnings from the endowment’s principal are used to support the American Legion Auxiliary for as long as the organization exists.

2. ALA Foundation Veteran Projects Fund – a fund where donations can be received and then granted to benefit American Legion Auxiliary national programs, districts/counties, departments, and units through:
 - Small grants being made to help districts/counties, departments, and units to support emergent projects that support veterans. Districts/counties, departments, and units must demonstrate that they will be funding part of the project for which a small grant is sought.
 - Supporting Veterans Creative Arts Festivals that showcase the artistic achievements of veterans receiving services through the VA’s healthcare system. The American Legion Auxiliary is the national co-presenter of the national event. ALA Foundation mini grants support local Creative Arts Festivals.
